Sgt Zahurul Huq's 28th anniversary of death tomorrow

BNP leader and former state minister Shahjahan Siraj, in a statement yesterday, called upon all to observe the 28th death anniversary of Sergeant Zahurul Huq tomorrow in a befitting manner, reports UNB.

Sgt Zahurul Huq, one of the main accused of Agartala conspiracy case, was shot and killed by Pakistani Army at Dhaka Cantonment on February 15, 1969. The death intensified the movement for self-rule of the then East Pakistan.

Shahjahan Siraj, a veteran student leader during the '69 mass upheaval, requested freedom fighters, students and all others, irrespective of party affiliation, to pay tributes to Sgt Zahurul Huq on his death anniversary tomorrow.

Meanwhile, leaders of Swadhin Bangla Chhatra Sam gram Parishad 71, an organisation comprising leaders of pre-liberation students' demonstration, will place wreath at the mazar of Sgt Zahurul Huq at Azampur graveyard in the city 9 am tomorrow.

Call to observe 'anti-autocrat day' today

Twenty-five former student leaders in a joint statement yesterday called for observing 'anti-autocrat day' today, reports UNB.

On this day in 1983, police fired on a student procession chanting slogans against anti-people education policy and the then military rule.

Jafar, Jainal and Dipali Saha were killed in the firing which led to the mass upsurge in 1990 and Ershad's ouster.

To mark the day, the former student leaders will hold a rally in front to Jatiya Press Club at 10 am. After the rally, they will place wreaths at a memorial plaque in front of Curzon Hall.

Death anniversary

The 14th death anniversary of eminent journalist and radio and television broadcaster Asaf Ud-Doula Reza will be observed today, reports BSS.

Different organisations have organised separate programmes to commemorate the day.

A milad mahfil will be held at 248/6, TV Link Road, East Rampura and at 42, North Kamalapur. A discussion will be held at Sherpur while milad mahfil and Qurankhuan will be held at his village home at Chandaikona Dhankundi of Bogra district.
