Seminar on Gender Issues in Ibsen's plays opens

'Ideas of Ibsen relevant in Bangladesh context'

Speakers at a seminar yesterday reached a consensus that the ideas of Ibsen, a Norwegian playwright, is relevant in Bangladesh context as he raised question against gender disparities, reports BSS.

They were speaking at an inaugural session of an international seminar on "gender issues in Ibsen's plays" organised by Centre for Asian Theatre (CAT). Former chief advisor of the caretaker government Justice Habibur Rahman addressed the function as the chief guest while Norwegian Ambassador to Bangladesh Hans Fredrik Lehne attended the function as the special guest.

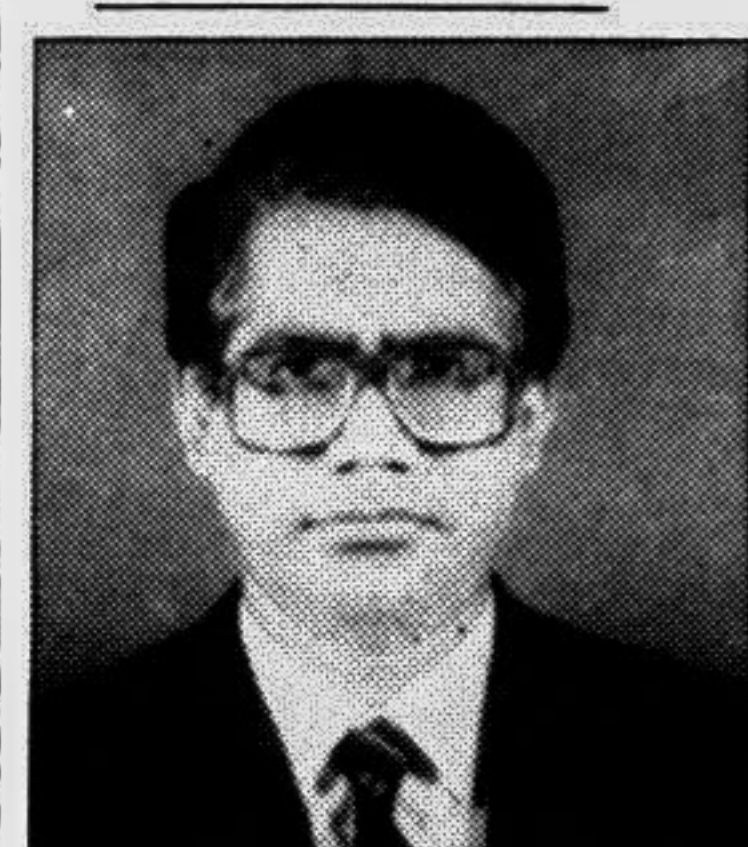

Prof A K Azad Chowdhury, Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University chaired the session. Habibur Rahman said Ibsen was interested in raising questions about the inequality between the male and female with respect to different rights, rather than carrying out a revolution against it.

He said the woman in our country comparatively enjoy more freedom as they had been enjoying property rights determined by the religions which was absent in many developed countries for quite a long time.

The former chief advisor said the fight against the gender disparities had been going on in Bangladesh as elsewhere in the world and Ibsen was being considered as the frontrunner of this movement.

He laid emphasis on finding out the ways and means of generating the idea that the man and woman are equally dependent on each other for their mutual interest.

Hans Fredrik Lehne stressed on exchanging cultural pro-

Dr Sirajul Haque to attend seminar

Dr K M H S Sirajul Haque, Professor and Head of the Department of Cardiology, Institute of Post Graduate Medicine and Research (IPGMR) leaves Tokyo today to participate in a seminar on 'Nutrition related chronic diseases epidemiology in Bangladesh', says a press release.

He will narrate his experience on 'Hypertension and other cardiovascular risk factors in Bangladesh people: A review of population based studies' in the seminar. He will comment on scientific studies with Japanese counterparts and he will also explore further joint collaborative scientific studies with Japanese physicians and scientists. He is expected to return on Feb 26.

grammes between Norway and Bangladesh for what he said to improve the image of Bangladesh in Norway as well as in the western countries.

Now Bangladesh is familiar as a disaster-prone country, he added.

Prof Azad Chowdhury said, the gender disparity is an identical problem to the East and the West but ours is more exposed as we less suffer from hypocrisy.

Prof Azad said Ibsen could be followed as a model for fighting against gender disparities.

The function was addressed, among others, by Prof Kabir Chowdhury, Shamsuzzaman Khan, director general of Shilpakala Academy and Kamaluddin Nilu, general secretary of CAT.

Prof Nurul Momen's anniversary of death today

The seventh death anniversary of the pioneer of drama in this country Natyaguru Professor Nurul Momen, will be observed today, says a press release.

Nurul Momen achieved prominence when in the late 30's and early 40's he became a prominent dramatist of entire Bengal with his plays 'Rupantar' and 'Nemesis'. He was also a pioneer of English and Bengali satirical essays in this country.

He was associated with the electronic media as a playwright and broadcaster right from the inception of the BBC Bangla service, Dhaka Radio and Dhaka TV. He received the Bangla Academy award in 1961, Sitara-i-Imtiaz in 1967, Kushey Padak in 1977, Tenasir award in 1989 and Nasiruddin gold medal in 1979.

To commemorate the day, a milad mahfil will be held at the residence of his son Faisal Mahmud Nurul Momen at Uttara.

Different socio cultural organisations have arranged various programmes on the occasion. Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy will hold a discussion meeting at 5 pm. It will be followed by a staging of the play 'El Tuku El Jibontate' by the drama group 'Gloirey-Bairey'.
