own goal, Schneider was not challenged and he calmly headed in Dortmund's second to delight 47,000 fans.

On the hour, a deflection off Bernard Diomede nearly caught Klos off guard. Five minutes later, Klos was well positioned to stop Lamounchi's shot from 20 meters.

The vital away goal for Auxerre came in the 75th. Moussa Saib beat a challenge from Stefan Reuter on the left, sent a low pass to Lamouchi, whose shot touched the fingers of the advancing Klos and found its way into the net.

But in the 83rd, Ibrahim Tanko, just in after replacing Chapuisat, found Moeller with a brilliant pass and the midfielder shot over the diving Charbonnier.

Two minutes from time, Reuter was sent off after bringing down Tanbo West: Laslandes' free kick was saved by Klos. And in the closing seconds of injury time. Klos punched away

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, Mar 6: Striker Patrick Kluivert fired home a vital equaliser for Ajax on Wednesday in the first leg of Champions' League quarterfinal with Atletico Madrid. reports AP.

Argentine striker Juan Esnaider's header put the Spanish side ahead on eight minutes against the run of play.

Right back Geli broke down the right hand side in Atletico's first attack and centred to the far post for Esnaider to head high into the net past helpless keeper Edwin van der Sar.

Ajax had to wait until the 53rd minute before Kluivert drove the ball high into the top lefthand corner after neat passes on the edge of the penalty box from Marc Overmars and Jari Litmanen.

Kluivert later cleared the Spanish crossbar twice with second-half chances.

In the first half Ajax winger Tijani Babangida had the ball in the Madrid net on 15 minutes but the whistle had already gone for offside.

With Esnaider a lone figure up front and Atletico back on their heels, substitute Nordin Wooter fired narrowly wide with five minutes left.

Atletico had Geli, Toni, Diego Simeone and Carlos Aguilera booked, with defender Toni ruled out of the return.

Athens lives in a hope

ATHENS, Mar 6: Athens' main 'weapon' in its bid to host the 2004 Summer Olympic Games is the virtually universal support for the city's candidacy from Athenians and the Greek people in general, Athens Mayor Dimitris Avramopoulos said today, reports Xinhua.

Speaking at a press conference. Avramopoulos, who is a member of the committee responsible for promoting Athens' candidacy, praised 'the unity of spirity' prevailing among all parties involved in the city's bid.

Avramopoulos expressed guarded optimism about the chances of Athens being included on the International Olympic Committee's (IOC) shortlist of four or five candidate cities for the 2004 Olympics.
