

Unplanned irrigation causes water logging

From Staff Correspondent

KHULNA, Mar 10: People of twenty-two villages under six police stations of Khulna-Jessore belt have been waterlogged due to unplanned irrigation works in Bhabadaha beel. Crops on at least two thousand acres of land have already been damaged. Fish enclosures and ponds have been overflooded and all roads submerged under water. Hundreds of villagers alleged in a press statement that a group of vested interests cut off two embankments of Bhabadaha sluice gates at midnight of February 4. As a result, water from the Bhabadaha beel entered into the nearby beels damaging crops on thousands of acres of land. Hundreds of houses of the affected villages have gone under waist-deep water and inundating all other unaffected area. Thousands of people have been rendered homeless. They have taken shelter on high lands under the open sky. Mention may be made here that Phulata, Daulatpur and Dumuria of Khulna district and Abhoyanagar, Keshabpur and Monirampur of Jessore districts have been facing serious water logging problem from a long time. Beel Dakatia and Bhabadaha beel fall under these two districts. Crops never grow in these two beels due to water-logging problem. Finding no other alternative for survival, people of the waterlogged villages cut off the embankments for removing the water from waterlogged lands. As a result, they are now facing the havoc of uncontrollable situation created by inundation of twenty-two villages.

They also arrested one person, allegedly involved in running this fake fertilizer factory from the same place. According to police, acting on a tip-off, a contingent of police raided the house and found that the recovered goods were for marketing. All the bags were carrying the trade mark 'as plough brand' produced by Meghdutt Agro Equipment, police also arrested one Tarikul Islam from there. According to confession made by the arrested person it was learnt that some other activists of a political party were also involved in this fake fertilizer factory business and they were carrying out their business since long, the police said. According to another information, a total of 500 bags of fake was recovered from the same bazar by local law-enforcing agency. During investigation, it was detected that activists of the same political party were allegedly involved in the business. # From greater Rajshahi this year

Bumper mango output likely

RAJSHAHI, March 10: A bumper production of mango is expected this year in four districts of greater Rajshahi region. It is hoped that more than three lakh tons of mango will be produced in the current season from the region of Rajshahi, Chapainawabganj, Natore and Naogaon. According to the sources, actual amount of lands of mango cultivation or number of mango tree and gardens cannot be estimated, as mango trees are scattered here and there solitary and in clusters and people are cutting as well as planting mango trees every years. The mango gardens will account about 50,000 acres of land in four districts. It is estimated, 20,000 acres in Chapainawabganj, 15,000 acres in Rajshahi, 10,000 acres in Natore and 5,000 acres in Naogaon districts. According to sources, mango trees usually grow bud every alternative year. About 80 per cent trees grew buds in 1995 and consequently only about 20 per cent mango trees budded last this year growth of buds is very satisfactory. If the weather favours a record amount of mango will be harvested this year.

The prevailing weather is more or less favourable though dense fog in last four days have done a small harm. At the same time light occasional rains have also contributed to satisfactory blossoming of buds. Meanwhile the mango traders have already started to visit the mango gardens from the locality and other districts. Selling and buying of buds are also going on. Garden owners are selling their gardens in advance. Sources say that use of high potency pesticides coming across the border have stood in the way of good production of mango in last few years.
