Sports Reporter

Sylhet booked a berth in the eight-team final round of the Gazi Tank 17th national youth cricket championship after winning the Zone B final beating Barisal by one wicket at the Chandpur Stadium yesterday.

Sylhet who began play on the overnight score of 48 without loss in 25 overs, needing a further 208 runs to win in the remaining 55 overs, lost nine wickets before reaching the target with only two balls to spare.

Sylhet joined Mymensingh, Rajshahi, Chittagong and Rajshahi Education Board together with defending champions Narayanganj and runners-up Khulna in the last round.

Meanwhile, in the yet undecided Zone C, Tangail and Comilla began their hunt for the last spot in the finals at the Dhamond Cricket Stadium yesterday.

Put into bat, Tangail were all out for only 142 in 51.1 overs with Madan hammering highest 36. Sami (20) and Tapash (14) were the other notable run-getters.

Hooliganism halts hockey

Sports Reporter

A controversial ruling by Ramiz Ahmed led to a pre-match end of what would have been an absorbing first semifinal of the Garden City Club Cup tournament between Mohammedan Sporting Club and Usha Krira Chakra at the Hockey Stadium yesterday.

Ramiz, one of the two umpires in the middle, switched on the frustration and fury among the players of both teams when he awarded Mohammedans a goal early in the second half and then, after consulting with the third umpire, went on to revoke his decision in the face of some adverse reactions from Usha Krira Chakra.

Although the decision, which enabled Mohammedans a 3-1 lead, hardly justified its merit as the powerful hit from captain Mahfuzul Alam Nixon from a short corner crashed against the Usha net seemingly without a deflection, the reaction from Usha was by any standard a painful exhibition of vulgarity. The players soon rushed to protest the decision and some of them were seen pushing and punching, a hapless Ramiz vigorously before he was rescued by the police.

But that was only the beginning of a sad episode. Ramiz started the match without showing any caution to those culprits as if nothing had happened. His compromised attempt, however, only helped to spark off protests from Mohammedan players and more decisively let loose a furor at the stand from where the black and white supporters started pelting stones on the newly-laid artificial turf which eventually put an end to the match.

And with the members of the tournament committee in complete disarray, a hosts of Mohammedan officials then intervened into the happenings, seizing the stage with a shameful demonstration of hooliganism.

Among those unwanted guests, perhaps Tariqul Islam Titu did the heroic (or villainous?) job of slapping Ramiz for his wrongdoing. The Mohammedan cricket manager, without having the authority to enter into the ground, led the invasion of the pitch along with some supporters and sent Ramiz down on his knees with a sudden stinging and loud slap on his face. This single act not only bemused the audience, but also raised a uproar in support of his shameful act.

At one stage it was felt that there were hardly any law and order situation despite the strong presence police.

"I have requested the police to drive away those people who did not have the permission to enter the ground," said the tournament committee sec-tary Rehanul Karim while Shamsul Bari, the general secretary of the Bangladesh Hockey Federation (BHF) appeared like a mere onlooker during the troublesome atmosphere.

But the most interesting revelation was made by Mahabub, a duty officer of the police at the ground. While contacted he said that they had repeatedly requested the authorities in vain to identify those people who made unlawful entry, but their urge failed to enter into the deaf ears of the committee members.

Meanwhile, Mohammedans in the letter threatened that they would stay off the tourney if the BHF fails to comply with their three conditions. Firstly, they will play the remaining of the proceedings only if the goal is allowed. Secondly, the incompetent tournament committee secretary must be sacked and thirdly, the safety of the players must be ensured.

On the other hand, the umpires are yet to come up with their reports for an emergency meeting, expected to be held today.

Meanwhile, the authorities have deferred today's second semifinal between Abahani Krira Chakra and Mariner Young's Club.

However, apart from the sad episode, it was a see-saw battle before the match, fell through seven minutes in the second half.

National centre-forward Kamal put Usha into the lead in the 14th minute after being fed by medio Sadeq. But their joy was short lived as Mohammedans bounced back strongly in the 22nd minute with Nixon scoring from a penalty corner. The Mohammedan captain then stepped up to convert a penalty stroke with aplomb to enable Mohammedans a 2-1 lead in the 28th minute. Mir Monwar Ali pointed to the dreaded spot when Sadeq tried to thwart a goal-bound drive from Nixon unlawfully.

In addition to that Sadeq, who was instrumental for the early lead of Usha, also had his share of misfortune when his penalty stroke was brilliantly saved by Mohammedan captain Javed in the third minute before the hell broke loose.

Lanka laid on the line

HAMILTON, New Zealand, Mar 15: A Test-best performance by reformed fast bowler Heath Davis fired New Zealand into a strong position at stumps on the second day of the second cricket Test against Sri Lanka here today, reports AFP.

The paceman collected five for 63 in just his fourth Test to help roll the tourists for 170 and earn his side a first innings advantage of 52 runs on a rapidly wearing pitch. New Zealand then extended their lead to 105 at stumps when they were 53 for one in their second innings, with Bryan Young unbeaten on 22 and Matt Horne on 10.

They lost opening batsman Blair Pocock for seven in the sixth over when he edged a ball from left-arm seamer Nuwan Zoysa to Roshan Mahanama at second slip.

Young was fortunate to survive until stumps after he was dropped on six at slip by Mahanama from the first delivery bowled by off-spinner Kumar Dharmasena.

The career of Davis, once rated by former New Zealand batsman and English county player Roger Twose as the fastest white bowler in the world, had been plagued by a lack of control and no-ball problems.

He played one Test in England in 1994 and was then ignored by the New Zealand selectors until the third Test against the Englishmen in Christchurch last month.

Davis, who now adheres to a tighter line and teenaged left-arm spinner Daniel Vettori caused the damage for New Zealand.

Vettori, just 18 and appearing in a Test for just the fourth time, chipped in with four for 46 from 25 accurate overs on a surface causing problems and which is unlikely to see the match go the full distance of five days.

He relished playing on his home ground to display good control and flight in the air and again underline the big role he may play in the resurgence of the New Zealand team.

Opener Mahanama top-scored for the tourists with a diligent 45 while lower-order batsmen Chaminda Vaas, with 28, and Kumar Dharmasena, with 27, put their heads down to grind out a seventh wicket stand of 53 in two hours.

Aravinda de Silva's dismal show continued when he made just one to lift his run aggregate from his last three innings to four before Vettori captured his first wicket of the innings this morning.
