Water Resources Minister Abdur Razzak addressing the inaugural ceremony of 'Swadhinata O Unnayan Mela' in the city yesterday. — Star photo

'Swadhinata Mela' opens

Water Resources Minister Abdur Razzak yesterday alleged that a vested quarter was hatching conspiracy against the nation, trying to make Bangladesh a part of another country, reports BSS.

"A conspiracy is still on... A national intelligence agency of that particular country is putting Bangladesh on their map," he said while addressing the inaugural ceremony of 'Swadhinata O Unnayan Mela 97' (Independence and Development Fair) at the Dhanmondi Club playground in the city.

Deputy Chief of Staff of Mukti Bahini and former chief of Bangladesh Air Force Air Vice Marshal (ret) A K Khondaker inaugurated the three-day fair, jointly organised by Association of Development Agencies in Bangladesh (ADAB) and Trinamul Janasangathan. ADAB chief Dr Qazi Faruk Ahmed presided.

Urging all to face the conspiracy against the nation, Razzak said the distortion of history of the War of Liberation started after the killing of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman on August 15, 1975, adding, the spirit of the Liberation War was destroyed through the electronic and print media in a planned way by the defeated forces.

Razzak said "I feel shame when I see the collaborators of Pakistan, who violated our sisters during the war, sit beside me in Parliament".

Meanwhile, some 150 freedom fighters were accorded a reception on the occasion.
