National Bank with International Connection

Committed to Excellence

National Bank the first private bank fully owned by Bangladeshi entrepreneurs came into business in 1983. NBL has grown to become Bangladesh's major private sector bank with a network of 64 branches across the country and joint ventures in the Middle East and Nepal and Correspondents all over the world. Our total assets now exceed Taka 24 billion. This achievement was due to prudent judgement, commitment and banking skill. We believe banking is a mission to achieve the common goal of the client and the Bank. It's also about building for the future, keeping assets secure for the coming generations.

Share the success of a bank that looks into the future.
