Sweden move into semis

VAXJO, Sweden, Apr 7: Sweden's Jonas Bjorkman beat South African Grant Stafford in a tense five-setter on Sunday to give favorites Sweden a 3-2 Davis Cup win and a slot in the semifinals for the sixth straight year, reports Reuters.

Bjorkman beat Stafford 3-6, 6-0, 3-6, 6-2, 6-2 in two hours 28 minutes in his home town of Vaxjo.

Bjorkman, partnered by Nicklas Kulti, also clinched the doubles match for Sweden on Saturday, beating South African duo David Adams and Ellis Ferreira.

"After good preparation this week I really felt good," said Bjorkman, ranked 23 in the world.

Swedish vice captain Anders Jarryd said: "I did expect it would be a tough match. When it comes down to a fifth match it is always going to be a difficult match."

South African captain Danie Visser praised his players saying: "the guys don't have all that much experience yet but we are going to be tougher every year."

The tie was level 1-1 after the opening singles on Friday when Sweden's number one Thomas Enqvist beat 69th ranked Stafford and South Africa's top player Wayne Ferreira beat Bjorkman.

Sweden took the lead on Saturday by winning the doubles but South Africa levelled the scores again earlier on Sunday when Ferreira beat Enqvist 6-4, 6-4, 6-4 in the first of the reverse singles.

The final contest between Bjorkman and Stafford, watched by a crowd of about 3,000 including Swedish veteran Stefan Edberg, was tight.

After the South African took the first set 6-3, Bjorkman trampled his opponent in the second to win it.

Stafford came back strongly in the third, breaking Bjorkman in the first game and going on to take the set.

Bjorkman picked up his game in the fourth to take it 6-2, and repeated the score in the fifth as Stafford started to wilt.

"We started to look a bit tired in the fifth set and I think that was the turning point," Bjorkman said. "There was a few points where he did not run at all and that definitely helped mentally."

Sweden now face Italy in the last four on September 19-21 in Sweden.

Since the World Group began in 1981, Sweden have advanced to nine finals, winning four of them, and have reached the semifinals a further three times.

Antigua Test
No play on third day

ST JOHN'S, Antigua, Apr 7: Cloudless, sunny skies did little to help a sodden outfield Sunday, forcing the cancellation of the third day and reducing the fourth cricket Test between the West Indies and India into a two-day affair, reports AP.

Umpires Steve Bucknor of Jamaica and BC Cooray of Sri Lanka, after their fourth inspection during the afternoon, officially announced there would be no play possible for the day at 4:10 pm (2010 GMT). Heavy rain on Friday and Saturday had caused the abandonment of the opening two days of the match at the Recreation Ground in St John's.

The main concern for the umpires was two muddy patches about 15 yards (metres) from the pitch on the eastern side of the field. Even the presence of a local tour helicopter, called in by the Antigua Cricket Association, could not improve the conditions enough.

The chopper spent two separate stints hovering over the more affected areas. But that, along with the spreading of sawdust and dried grass by the ground staff did little to improve the sodden field.

With only two days of the match remaining, there had been speculation that the Boards might agree to either extend the match or schedule one-day internationals in its place. But talks broke down and, in the end, the match seemed destined to be an uneventful, two-day non-event.

Michelle's fifth British Open

CARDIFF, Apr 7: Michelle Martin won the British Open title for the fifth successive time when she beat world champion Sarah Fitz-Gerald 9-5, 9-10, 9-5, and 9-5 on Sunday, reports Reuters.

"This was a more satisfying win than my first British Open," said Martin.

The final failed to reach the level of play that the two Australians reached in last year's final but was still the best of the tournament.

The early part of each game swung first one way and then the other but Martin was invariably stronger at the end of the games.

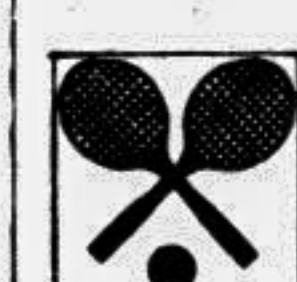

"After losing the world title last year I went home, rested for a bit and then got down to working for the sort of condition that would set the record straight," said Martin.

Pakistani Jansher Khan shows off the British Open trophy after beating Scottish Peter Nicol in the final on Apr 6. The world number one won 17-15, 9-15, 15-12, 8-15 and 15-8 to grab the title for the six consecutive time.

Hingis does it a la Lipton

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, South Carolina, Apr 7: Martina Hingis, the WTA Tour's top-ranked player, showed another dimension to her growing game in beating Monica Seles, 3-6, 6-3, 7-6 (7-5) Sunday for the Family Circle championship, report agencies.

A week after destroying Seles 6-2, 6-1 in 44 minutes to win the Lipton Championship, Hingis needed more than two hours for her sixth title this year. Her streak of 31 match victories is tied for sixth best all time, but it looked in danger when she trailed 5-0 in the match's first 14 minutes.

"I was just hoping she didn't do the same score to me as I did to her," Hingis said. "I liked last week a lot better."

Hingis earned 150,000 dollars boosting her season's winning to more than 1.2 million dollars.

Since the tournament began, Hingis was caught up in the celebration of her rise to No. 1. She posed with a giant No. 1 made out of tennis balls when she came to Sea Pines on Monday.

Then joked with the fans, the volunteers and anyone she could find.

She faced only one seeded opponent No. 14 Brenda Schultz-McCarthy in the semifinals before the championship. So she looked unprepared and out of sync as the fourth-seeded Seles seized the early lead.

"In tennis, you can never say the tiebreaker was just as tense. Seles led 5-3 when the fever she was bothered with all week caught up to her, and she missed four straight shots.

Seles was seeking her career singles title and her first since the Nichirei International last September, she was making her Hilton Head debut after with drawing from three previous Family Circle due to injuries.

Hingis was playing in her eighth successive final, dating back to last year. She has also won the Australian Open, the Sydney International, Pan Pacific Open, and the Open Gaz de France.

"A match is gone," Hingis said. "I was upset with the way I played and started to play longer points."

Romario's mixed day

RIO DE JANEIRO, Apr 7: Striker Romario converted one penalty and missed another as Flamengo ended Botafogo's 100 per cent record in the Rio de Janeiro championship on Sunday, reports Reuters.

Botafogo had won all 13 games in the tournament, now in its second stage, and looked set for another victory as they took a 2-0 lead in the first 20 minutes.

Romario, who on Wednesday scored his first goal for Brazil since the 1994 World Cup, started the Flamengo fightback when he pulled a goal back from the penalty spot in the 25th minute. It was his 13th goal of the competition.

Shortly afterwards, he missed a chance to equalise when he fired a second penalty, awarded after Romario himself had been hauled down in the penalty area, against the Botafogo post.

But early in the second half, defender Junior Baiano, sacked by German club Werder Bremen last year after punching a rival defender and being banned for ten Bundesliga matches, scored the equaliser to give Flamengo a 2-2 draw.

Botafogo won all 12 games on their way to winning the first stage of a tournament, then beat Americano in mid-week in their opening game in the second stage.

Their run included a humiliating defeat of Flamengo when Botafogo, already guaranteed a place in the first stage final, fielded a reserve team but still won 1-0. Flamengo had needed to win the match to reach the first stage final at the expense of Vasco da Gama.

Liberia beat Egypt

ACCRA, Apr 7: Former world footballer-of-the-year George Weah kept Liberia's slim hopes of World Cup qualification alive on Sunday with a solo effort that gave his war-shattered country a 1-0 victory over Egypt, reports Reuters.

Weah broke from deep inside his own half to score the only goal of the match from a thunderous 20-metre drive in the 29th minute.

Liberia, who played their home leg in Ghana's capital Accra because of strife back home, trail Group Two leaders Tunisia by five points. The two sides meet in Tunisia at the end of April.

Sunday's result means Egypt are out of the race to qualify for the 1998 finals in France.

Meanwhile, angry fans brought Gabon's African Group Five qualifier against Morocco to a halt on Sunday after the Moroccan took a 4-0 lead.

The referee had to abandon the match 10 minutes into the second half.

Morocco had gone 2-0 ahead within the first five minutes after a double strike by Bahia Hamed, Salah Edidine then scored twice before halftime.

Morocco were top of the group with four points from two matches. Gabon were bottom with one point.
