American Express Bank to collect US visa fees

The US Embassy in Dhaka will no longer collect fees for applications for non-immigrant visas at the Embassy, beginning from April 22, reports UNB.

The applicants for non-immigrant visas have been asked to deposit application fees to the US Embassy's American Express account.

A USIS press release yesterday said the Motijheel branch of the American Express Bank, from where receipts are to be collected, will begin deposits and issuing receipts on April 20.

The US Embassy will accept either American Express receipts or Bangladesh currency on April 20 and 21. Each receipt is valid for one year.

Non-immigrant visas include tourist, business and students visas. Fees for immigrant visas, including diversity visa will still be collected at the US Embassy, the release added.
