Feni killings

Killers will be arrested, Rafiq assures BNP team

By Staff Correspondent

Home Minister Rafiqul Islam assured a BNP delegation, which called on him at his Secretariat office yesterday, that the killers of Tushar and Nasir in Feni would be arrested no matter how powerful and influential they are.

The minister told the BNP team that three of the accused in the two murders had been arrested and police was making concerted efforts to nab rest of the accused, according to a BNP press release.

The BNP delegation comprising M Morshed Khan, MP, M K Anwar, MP, and Barqatullah Bhulu, MP, also expressed their dissatisfaction for not taking effective measures to bring to book all the accused in the killings of JCD leader Tushar and Juba Dal leader Nasir.

The opposition lawmakers also alleged deterioration of law and order all over the country.

Govt to recruit 4000 more nurses

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday said the government has decided to recruit 4,000 more nurses for improving the health services in the country, reports BSS.

Hasina said this while talking to a 17-member delegation of Diploma Nurses Welfare Association, led by its president Ismat Ara Parveen, when they called on the Prime Minister at her official residence yesterday.

The Prime Minister said her government was committed to take health service to the doorsteps of people and measures were being taken to ensure health for all.

She said the government would take steps for higher training of nurses.

She called upon the association leaders to motivate their members to work in rural and far-flung areas of the country to provide services to the distressed people with devotion and sincerity.

The nurses' leaders put forward a charter of demand and urged the Prime Minister to take necessary steps.

Mohiuddin laid to rest

Awami League presidium member Mohiuddin Ahmed was laid to rest at Muktijoddah graveyard at Mirpur yesterday.

Earlier in the morning, his body was flown to Mathbaria thana of Barisal district where his second namaj-e-janaza was held at Mathbaria High School ground. A third janaza was also held before burial.

Task force report on edn boards by June 30 likely

The government has formed a task force to recommend ways for ensuring transparency, accountability and dynamism in the country's education boards, reports BNP.

The task force, with Vice Chancellor of BIT Council Dr Nazrul Islam as convenor, which has already begun its work is expected to finalise the report by June 30, said an official handout Saturday.

Elaborate programmes have been undertaken to implement the aims and objectives of the task force.

The members of the task force will exchange views and take suggestions from the experienced people involved in education administration, former officials and employees and other interested persons.

Interested people, institutions and associations have been requested to convey their opinions and suggestions or specific allegations, if any, to the task force convenor, Dr Nazrul Islam, either directly or by mail at his office [House 29, Road 10/A, Dhamondi R/A].

The task force seeks cooperation of all concerned to help raise the standard of education by ensuring a transparent, accountable and dynamic education administration.

Hale-Bopp preparing to say good bye

The Hale-Bopp comet is preparing to say good bye to hundreds of watchers in Bangladesh but will reappear over the country about 2,000 years later, reports UNB.

The comet could be visible in the country to naked eyes upto next month and station its self over south pole till the end of June before shooting off the infinity, said Bangladesh Astronomical Association President Dr AR Khan.

Talking to UNB, Dr AR Khan said hundreds of inquisitive young scientists could watch the comet, head to tail, with the help of a binocular but it was vivid and bright when seen with a telescope.

The comet, located at the direction of 33-42 degree north-west, is visible shortly after sunset for about two hours.

Bangladesh Astronomical Association has arranged Hale-Bopp observation camp in and outside Dhaka since March 28.

The camp in Dhaka will close on April 16, but at some places including Narayanganj, Munshiganj, Manikganj and Tangail, the camps are likely to function until the end of this day on April 15.
