Gram police to be further strengthened: Zillur

LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Zillur Rahman yesterday said in Bogra that the Gram Police forces will be further strengthened under direct supervision of the Union Parishads by amending the 1968 Union Council (Gram Police force) Rule, reports UNB.

This will ensure peace, discipline and stability in rural life and also help to boost production in agriculture, fisheries, livestock, poultry and other social sectors, he said.

The minister was addressing as chief guest at the grand conference of Gram Police forces of 16 districts of the Rajshahi division.

Nearly 42,000 members of the Gram Police forces are engaged in maintaining law and order in some 88,000 villages as an auxiliary force of Thana Administration under the Union Parishad Local Government.

The LGRD minister stressed on greater role of the members of the Gram Police forces in rural economic activities alongside their normal duties in maintaining law and order.

"No nation can prosper and achieve its economic goal without developing the villages and leaving the vast rural population in miseries and poverty," he said.

Keeping this in view, Zillur Rahman said, the present government had taken steps to bring qualitative changes in four tiers of local government structures with Village Council at grassroots level.

This is to make the rural economy self-reliant and more stronger to materialise the dream of father of the nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman," he added.
