APSU for ban on communal politics

By JU Correspondent

The All-Party Students' Unity (APSU) in Jahangirnagar University (JU) has again called upon the government to ban the political activities of communal and anti-liberation forces in the country.

APSU leaders were addressing a rally on the university campus yesterday to observe the 68th anniversary of the birth of the late "Shahid Janani" Jahanara Imam.

Demanding the trial of all war criminals, the leaders also urged the government to take action against the activists of the Islami Chhatra Shibir (ICS) involved in terrorist activities in different educational institutions.

Joint general secretary of Chhatra League (S-P) Moniruzzaman Kawsar, GS of Chhatra Union Ahsan Kibria Siddique, Chhatra Dal GS Asadullah Asad and joint convener of Chhatra Federation Maruf Ahmed were among those who spoke on the occasion.

BOU to launch new courses soon

Education programmes of Bangladesh Open University (BOU) will be diversified with the launching of some new courses soon, BOU Vice-Chancellor Dr M Aminul Islam said yesterday, reports UNB.

He was speaking at a reception accorded to the newly-appointed pro-Vice Chancellor of BOU, Dr Ri Sharif, at the university campus in Gazipur yesterday.

The courses include M Ed, Certificate in Education, Diploma in Computer Application, BSC (Nursing), Bachelor in English Language Teaching and MBA.

The VC said BOU will soon start broadcasting a 40-minute un-interrupted TV programme, instead of 25-minutes-a-day broadcast presently.

He added that with the commencement of a second channel, BTV is expected to allocate three to four hours a day for BOU programmes.

Dr Islam said steps are also underway to construct a Regional Resource Centre (RRC) on the south of river Padma.
