Cherry rules over willow

The first day of the second semifinal of the 23rd national cricket championship between holders

Chittagong and Dhaka University witnessed wickets tumbling like nine pins at the Dhaka Stadium yester-

With the re-installed artificial wicket producing both bounce and movement, the opening day of the three-day affair proved to be a happy hunting ground for the bowlers as sixteen wickets fell in 72.1 overs played on the day.

Earlier in the morning Chittagong, after winning the toss, elected to use the wickets first.

The port city outfit, which include as many as five national players, were bundled out for a meagre 106 in only 46.1 overs, less than half of their first innings quota of 100 overs. As the day grew older, situation, especially after the lunch, worsened and Dhaka University, in their chase, were reeling at 35 for six in 25 overs at Although the hurriedly laid artificial turf troubled batsmen a lot, but it hardly justified willow-wielders' action where most of the recognised batsmen virtually threw away their National left-arm spinner Enamul Haq Moni, who clouted the only six of the day, fell for 11. The southpaw was bowled by left-arm spinner Mustadir Litu who mopped up the tail to finish with two for only five runs in his three overs

In reply, Dhaka University were off to a horrible start losing six wickets for only 23 runs. They lost their opener Javed Omar Belim for one in the very first over when former national left-arm seamer Jahangir Talukder Dulu won a vociferous leg before appeal against the right-hander.

Dulu then clean bowled onedown Mustadir Litu for eight. And when Sajjad Ahmed Mansur Shipon was caught by Akram off Morshed Ali Khan, Dhaka University were limping on 14 for three.

Things turned grave when the mainstay of Dhaka University batting — Sajid Hasan (4), Al-Shariar Rokon (0) and skipper Naimur Rahman Durjoy (3) - made a lone trudge to the dressing room in quick succession.

Dulu and Sumon, the two left-armers, evenly shared the six wickets fell in Dhaka University innings. Dulu returned with 3/7 in his miserly 11 overs while Sumon finished with a fantastic figure of 7-3-7-3.

The twisty undulating tarmac roads on Corsica have again been the scene of close fought action on leg one of the Rally of France leaving 555 Subaru World Rally team drivers. Colin McRae and Piero Liatti in fourth and fifth positions respectively, says a press release.

On the opening stages on Monday, searing heat combined with the incessant twists and turns on the notoriously perilous roads played havoc with tyres, but Britain's Colin set the pace on the first stage with fastest time. However, as the temperature rose, both Colin and Piero drove with added caution to conserve tyre wear.

LONDON, May 6: Kent became the first county side to book a Benson and Hedges Cup quarter-final place as rain delayed several of their rivals on Monday, reports Reuter. Kent, chasing 224 to beat British Universities, were under pressure on 99 for five before gold award winner Nigel Long intervened with a matchwinning 75 to ensure a four-

MANCHESTER, England May 6: The International Table Tennis Federation is not taking any disciplinary action against Qatar, Iran and Algeria for failing to play Israel in the team event at the World Champi-onships, a senior ITTF official said on Sunday, reports Reuter. The three Muslim nations fulfilled their fixtures against the other teams in their eightnation group but did not show up for the Israeli matches.

The Israelis, who were awarded walkovers, lodged an official protest on April 29 calling for the teams and their players to be expelled from the championships.
