Devdas's solo painting show begins

By Staff Correspondent

Devdas Chakrabarty's fortnight-long solo exhibition of paintings and drawings opened at the Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy yesterday.

Dr Mohiuddin Khan Alamgir, State Minister for Planning, Tourism and Civil Aviation, speaking at the inaugural function, described the artist as 'a very sensitive and caring personality'. The state minister praised Devdas for going on painting despite his poor health.

Shamsuzzaman Khan, Director, Shilpakala Academy, speaking on the occasion, described Devdas as 'an extraordinary man who has tremendous youthfulness and vigour in his works'.

Prof Kabir Chowdhury, who was also present, said that Devdas was keenly influenced by the happenings around him. 'His love for his country is obvious in his works', he added.

Dr Anisuzzaman, also speaking at the function, said that the artist has depicted important events, from the Language Movement to the Liberation War, in his paintings.

The artist himself spoke of how, on being expelled from his college in Calcutta, he took decision to come to Bangladesh. He said that he did not regret it and had made many friends here from the outset.

Some 46 paintings and 16 drawings are on display at the exhibition, which will run till May 25 and remains open daily from 2 pm to 7 pm.

Ruling party MPs accused of making derogatory remarks against judiciary

An opposition MP yesterday accused front-ranking treasury benchers of making derogatory remarks on the judiciary, saying that such remarks would obstruct execution of the rule of law in the country, reports UNB.

Major (Retd) Hafizuddin Ahmed of BNP referred to Saturday's parliamentary debate on the arrests of four BNP stalwarts and alleged that some ruling party leaders made contemptuous statements against the judges for releasing the arrested leaders.
