Training of huge number of pry teachers underscored

Speakers at an international workshop in the city yesterday underscored the need for training of a huge number of primary school teachers to help eradicate the curse of illiteracy. reports BSS.

They were speaking at an 'international training workshop capacity building in distance education for primary teachers training' jointly organised by the Commonwealth of Learning, Asian Development Bank, Bangladesh National Commission for UNESCO and Bangladesh Open University at Bangladesh Institute of Administration and Management (BIAM).

The speakers said that the training workshop would show the way for new opportunities in distance learning at large. A total of 17 representatives from Indonesia, China, Pakistan, India and host Bangladesh are participating in the 10day workshop.

Presided over by Vice-Chancellor of Bangladesh Open University (BOU) Prof Aminul Islam the inaugural session of the workshop was addressed also by Education Secretary Abdullah Haroon Pasha and UNESCO

Bhutanese envoy meets Motia

Bhutan is keen to exchange agricultural technology with Bangladesh as well as expand bilateral trade in agricultural goods, reports BSS.

This was stated by Bhutanese Ambassador to Bangladesh Lyonpo Tashi Tobgyel when he called on Agriculture and Food Minister Motia Choudhury at her Secretariat office yesterday, said an official handout.

countries could progress in the agricultural sector by exchanging locally developed technology. In this connection, she emphasised the need for exchanging information and experitan is keen to expand bilateral trade, particularly in agricul-representative to Bangladesh Dr Ansar Ali Khan as special guests, pro-Vice Chancellor of BOU Dr RI Sharif and training specialist of Commonwealth of Learning Patricia McWilliam.

In his speech Abdullah Haroon Pasha referred to the low rate of literacy in Bangladesh and said that the government had attached priority to remove illiteracy from the country. Pasha said that the government had taken steps including the Food for Education programme to remove the problem of school drop-outs. Referring to the lack of adequately trained school teachers the education secretary called for imparting training to the teachers at the primary school level. Good teachers, he said, could make good students.

Prof Aminul Islam said distance education and open learning continue to grow rapidly in all parts of the world including

He said the rapid expansion of distance education in Bangladesh had raised the need for technical and professional staff who were able to plan install, operate and manage the mix of media devices so critical in the development and delivery of distance learning.

Evasion of VAT Kebab shop sealed off

Officials of Motifheel Customs. Excise and VAT Division yesterday sealed off a kebab shop at Bijoynagar in the city for nonpayment of VAT tax, reports BSS.

An official press release said, 'Zani Kebab Ghar' at 3/1, I, North Bijoynagar, had long been abstaining from payment of VAT despite repeated reminders to the owners as per the law of the land.

The officials sealed off the shop with the cooperation of Dhaka Metropolitan Police. Similar action would be taken against organisations whi ch are yet to clear their VAT, the press release added.
