SPORTS TALK

Romario
(Brazilian star soccer player)
"We're the best in the world right now, and at the World Cup we'll be at an ever higher level."
Said recently in Rio de Janeiro after being included in the national squad.

Taylor thinks otherwise

LONDON, May 20: Australia's five-wicket thrashing at the hands of Worcestershire may have been just what the team needed, according to skipper Mark Taylor on Monday, reports AFP.

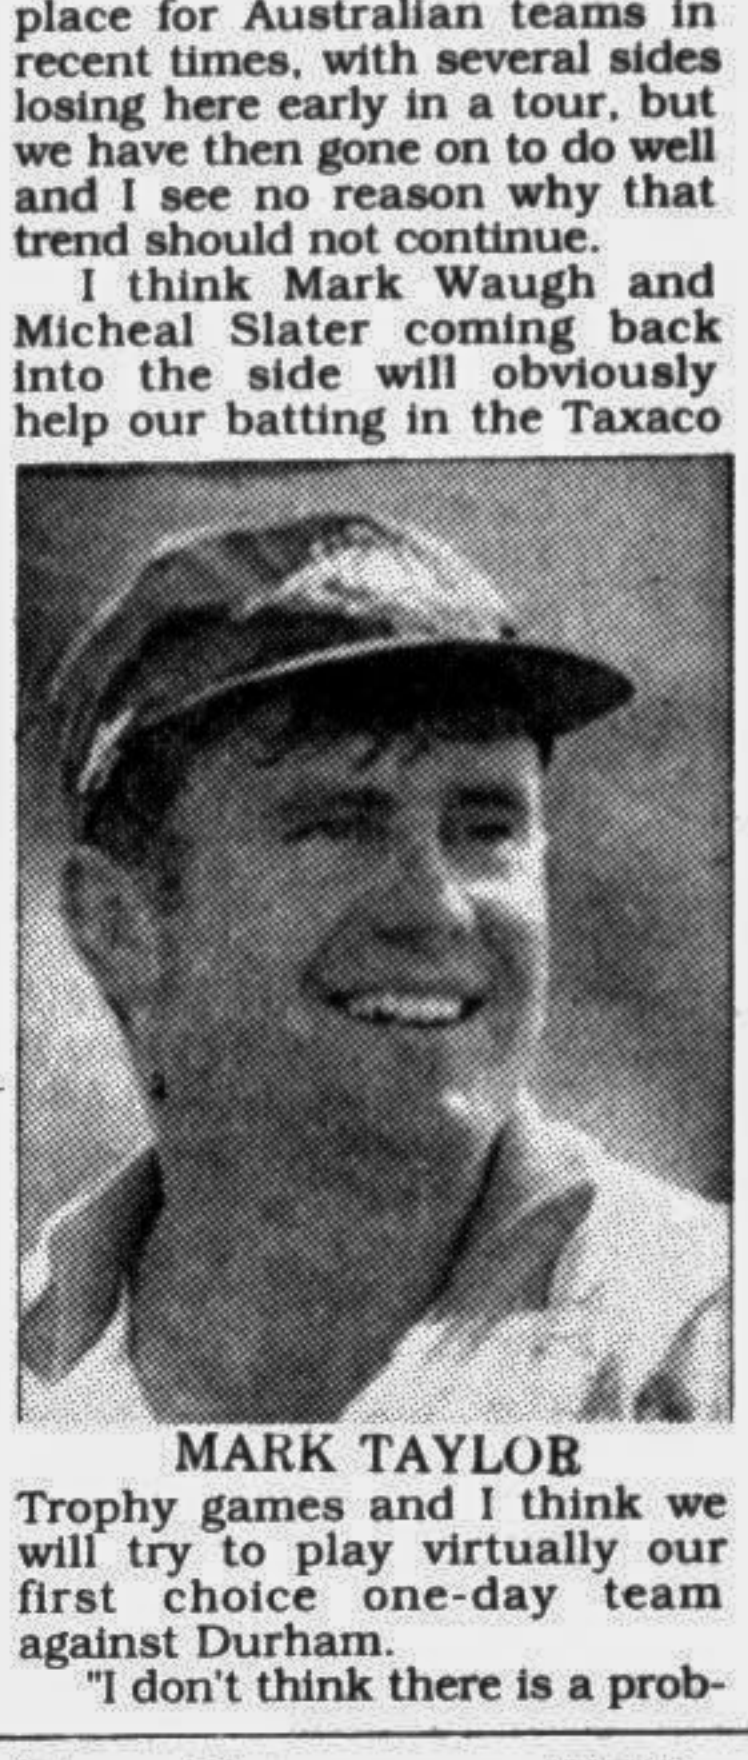

The Australians were skittled out for just 121 at Worcester on Sunday and now have just today's 50-overs fixture against David Boons Durham before they face England on Thursday in the first of three one-day internationals.

But Taylor was in relaxed and confident mood as the tour party set off for the north of England with the Australian captain planning to play in a charity golf event later in the day.

The Australians had looked vulnerable against Worcestershire's seamers, but Taylor insisted "I think we are doing okay, although obviously our batting has to improve."

"Perhaps this result, and those conditions we encountered on Sunday, were just what we needed at this state of the tour to get our minds properly focused."

"Worcester has been a bad

place for Australian teams in recent times, with several sides losing here early in a tour, but we have then gone on to do well and I see no reason why that trend should not continue."

I think Mark Waugh and Michael Slater coming back into the side will obviously help our batting in the Taxaco lem with our batsmen's technique. I just think we have to realise in the middle-order that you sometimes have to tough it out when conditions are like that.

"Several of our players got out to the drive and that's a very hard shot to play against the moving ball."

"But we have adapted well to similar conditions on previous tours, so I think this match will serve as a bit of a reminder."

As for our bowling, I am very happy. Mike Kasprowic has been particularly impressive. Brendon Julian and Shane Warne are both bowling well and Glenn McGrath looked much better yesterday than he did in the opening game at Arundel."

Worcestershire captain Tom Moody a fellow Aussie, still backs his countrymen to win the Taxaco series and added: "It's important that the Australians get the balance right in their batting order."

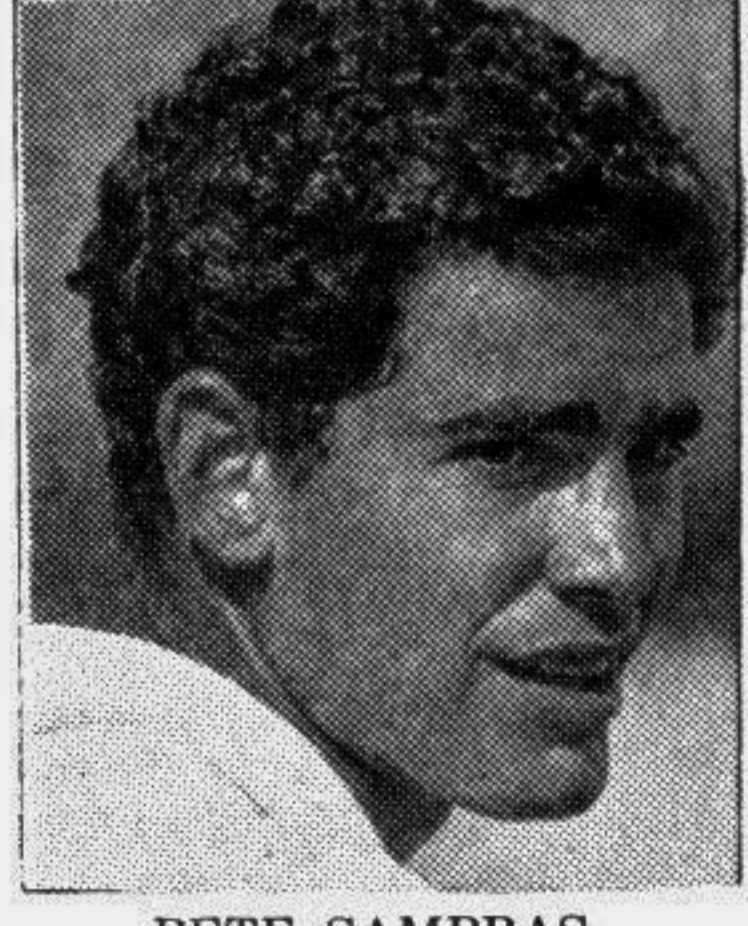

To my mind it is vital that Mark Taylor and Mark Waugh get runs on the board early on. The main fault in our one-day cricket performances in the last 12 months has been getting a base on which to build the innings."

Bad thigh lets Pete down

DUESSELDORF, Germany, May 20: Pete Sampras had to retire from his opening match of the World Team Cup against Australia's Mark Philippoussis on Monday after straining a left thigh muscle, reports Reuters.

World number one Sampras was leading 6-4, 4-6, 1-0 when he began to experience pain in the same leg that hampered him at the Italian Open in Rome.

Sampras was examined by tournament doctor Hartmut Krahel, who diagnosed the problem as a strain in the upper-left between O'Brien and Stark and the world number one doubles team of Woodforde and Todd Woodbridge will be played today.

The match was put back a day to allow O'Brien time to reach the tournament after competing on the final day of the Italian Open on Sunday.

Paul Haarhuis led the Netherlands to a 2-1 win over Germany in the day's other tie.

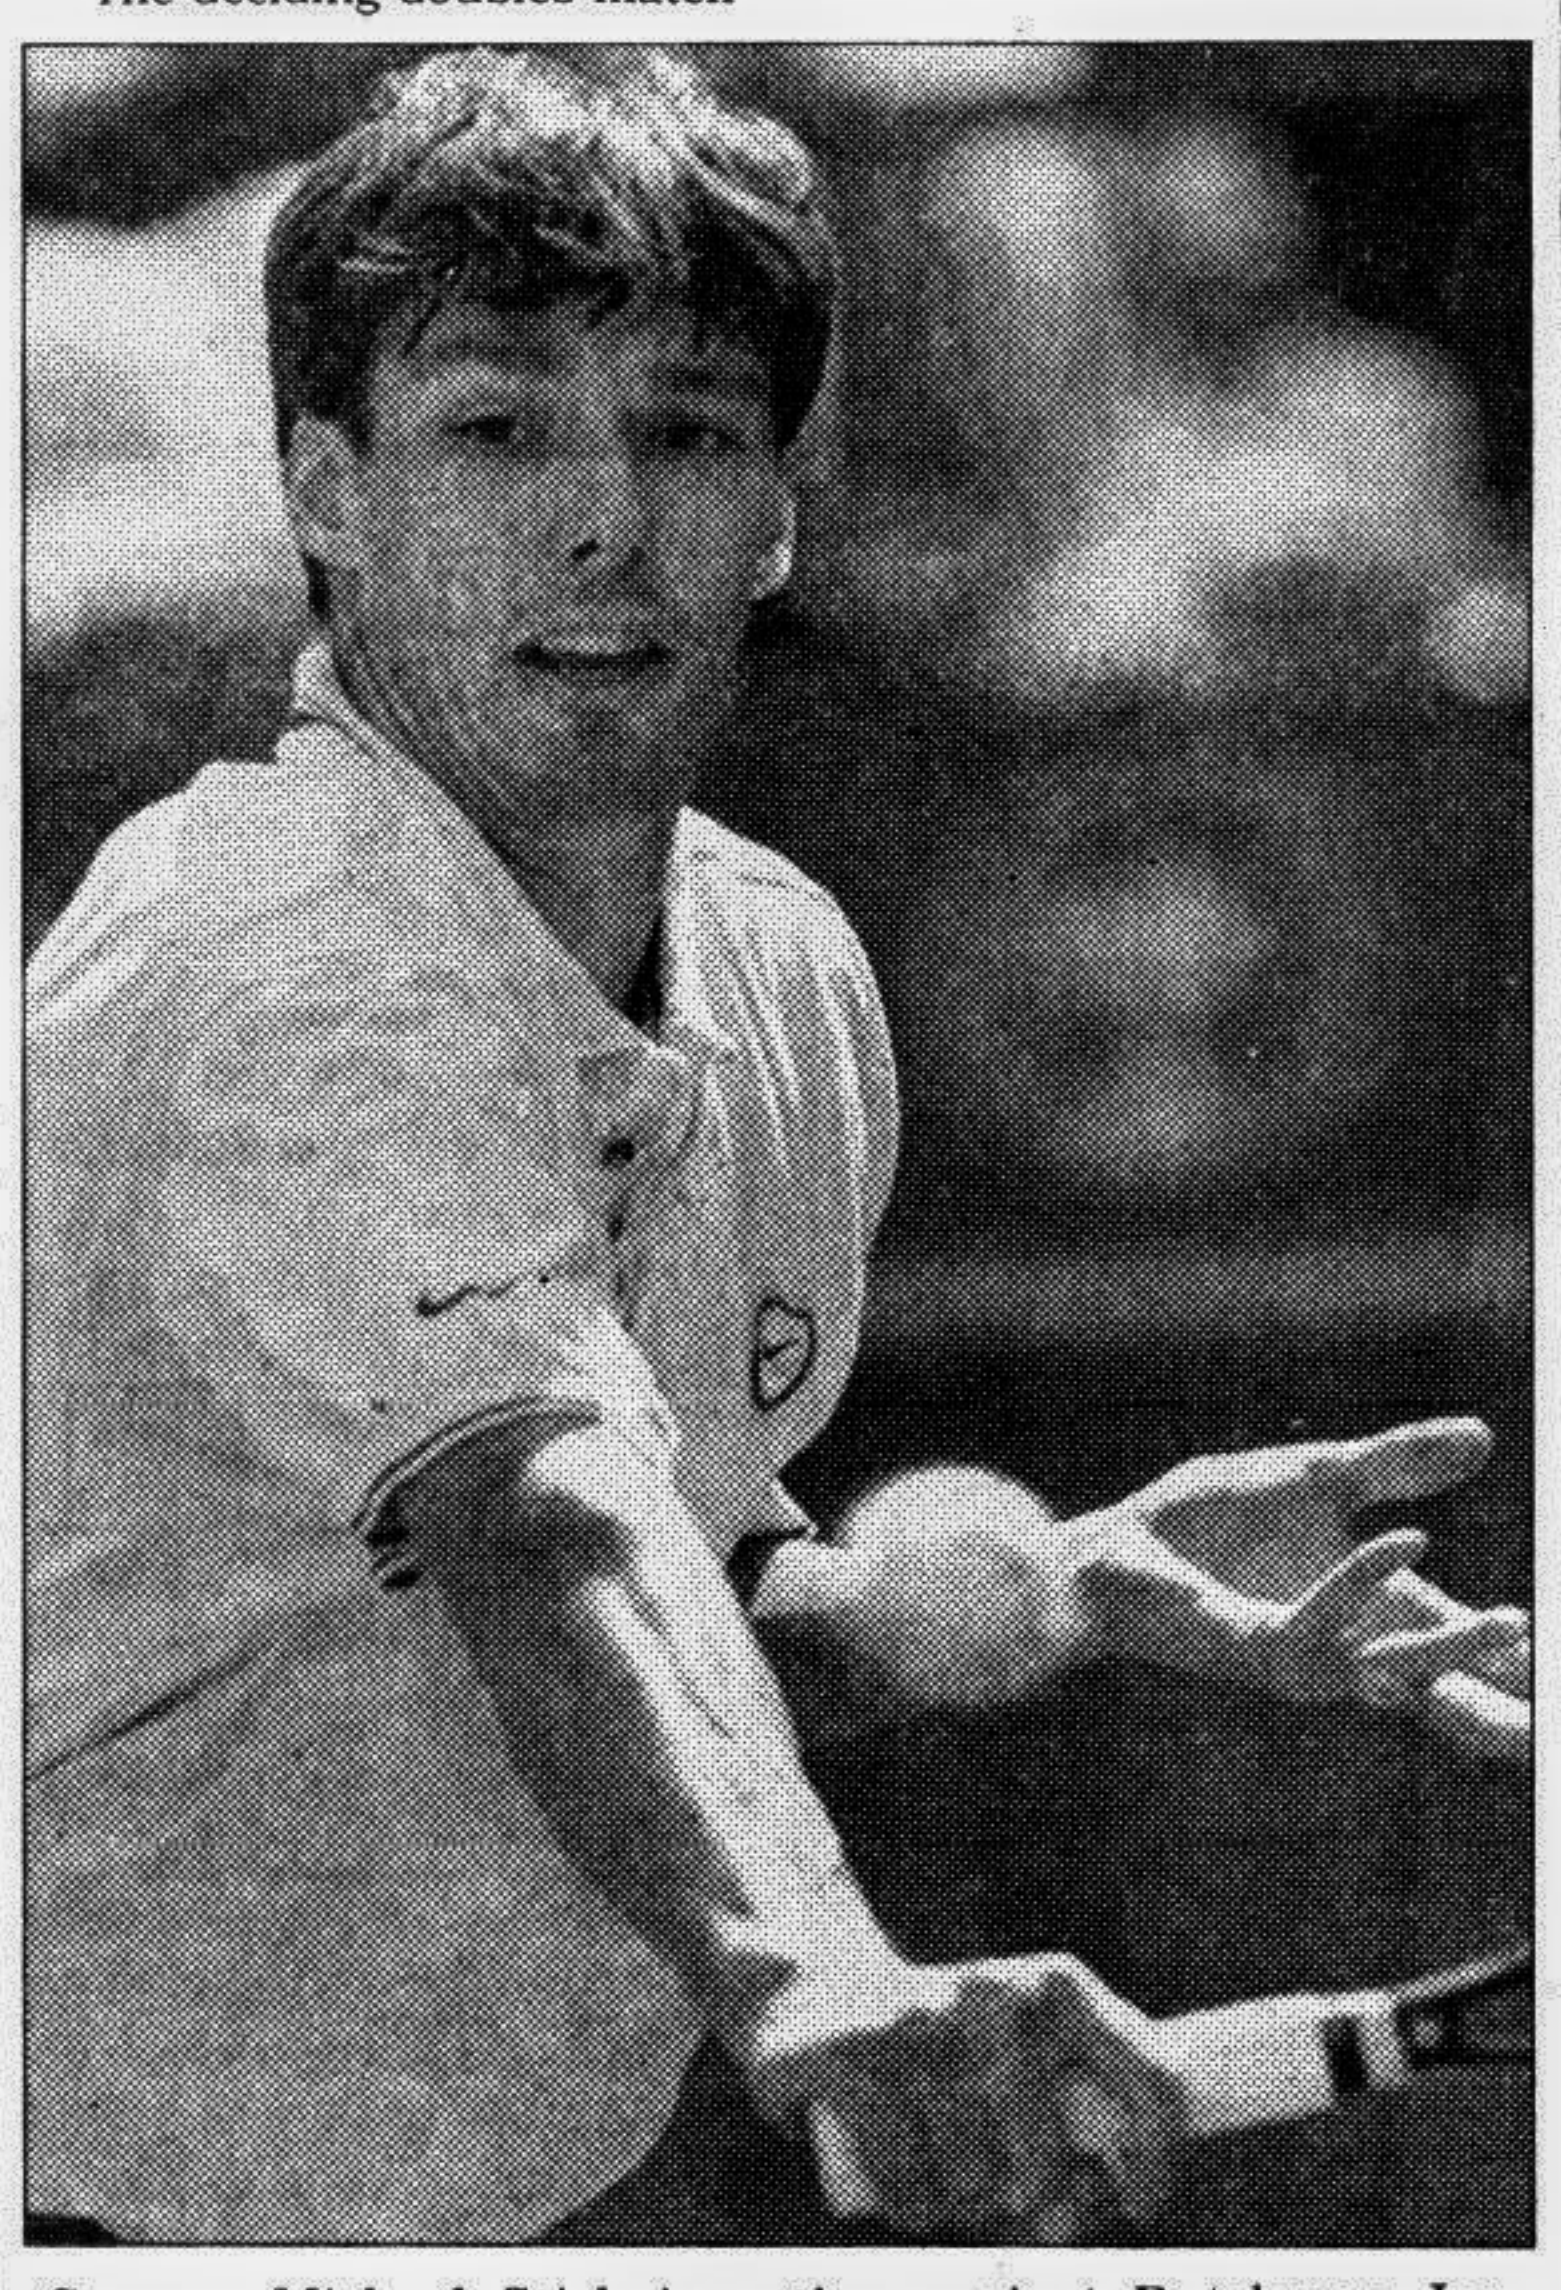

Germany began positively, with Michael Stich beating Jan Siemerink 6-3, 6-2.

But Haarhuis levelled the tie with a 7-5, 6-4 win over David Prinosil, then joined Jacco Eltingh to beat Stich and Martin Sinner 6-2, 6-3.

Muster sails

ST POELTEN, Austria, May 20: Thomas Muster breezed past French qualifier Sebastian Grosjean 6-3, 6-3 in the first round of the 425,000 dollars St Poelten clay-court tennis tournament on Monday, then said he was not 100 per cent fit, reports Reuters.

In their first-round matches, fourth-seeded Briton Tim Henman crashed out to unfancied Dutchman Sjeng Schalken 6-4, 6-2, while sixth-seeded Swede Jonas Bjorkman lost to Austrian wild card entry Clemens Trimmel 7-5, 3-6, 7-5.

German Michael Stich in action against Dutchman Jan Simerink at the World Team Cup in Dusseldorf, Germany on May 19.

Becker misses French Open

PARIS, May 20: Boris Becker withdrew from the French Open for the second consecutive year, organisers said Monday, reports AP.

According to the officials at the French Tennis Federation, Becker sent a fax to say he had to withdraw from the tournament because of an injury, although it did not cite the specific injury.

It's the fourth time since 1992 that Becker withdrew from the French Open.

In 1994, he withdrew minutes before his first-round match because of a pulled back muscle and a right-thigh muscle injury forced him to pull out in 1992.

Last year another thigh injury stopped him from playing.

Except for French Open, Becker has won all other Grand Slam tournaments. But he has never won a title on clay.

Two semifinal appearances have been his best showing at Roland Garros, but the last one was in 1991.

Becker is currently ranked 12th in the world and lost in the first round of the Australian Open.

Sidhu appears in court

PATIALA, May 20: Test cricketer Navjot Singh Sidhu, facing trial in a murder case, along with co-accused Rupinder Singh appeared in the sessions court here yesterday, reports PTI.

The two with Sidhu's counsel appeared as directed by the court at the last hearing when it permitted the player to tour abroad with the Indian team after he was picked for the West Indies trip.

The presence of the two was marked in the court though the judge, K K Garg, was on leave yesterday.

Meanwhile, the trial proceedings have been stayed by the Punjab and Haryana High Court.

Sidhu and Rupinder Singh are charged with the murder of landlord Gurnam Singh Ghalaria on December 27, 1988 in Patiala following heated exchanges and a scuffle.

Fighting with Warne footage

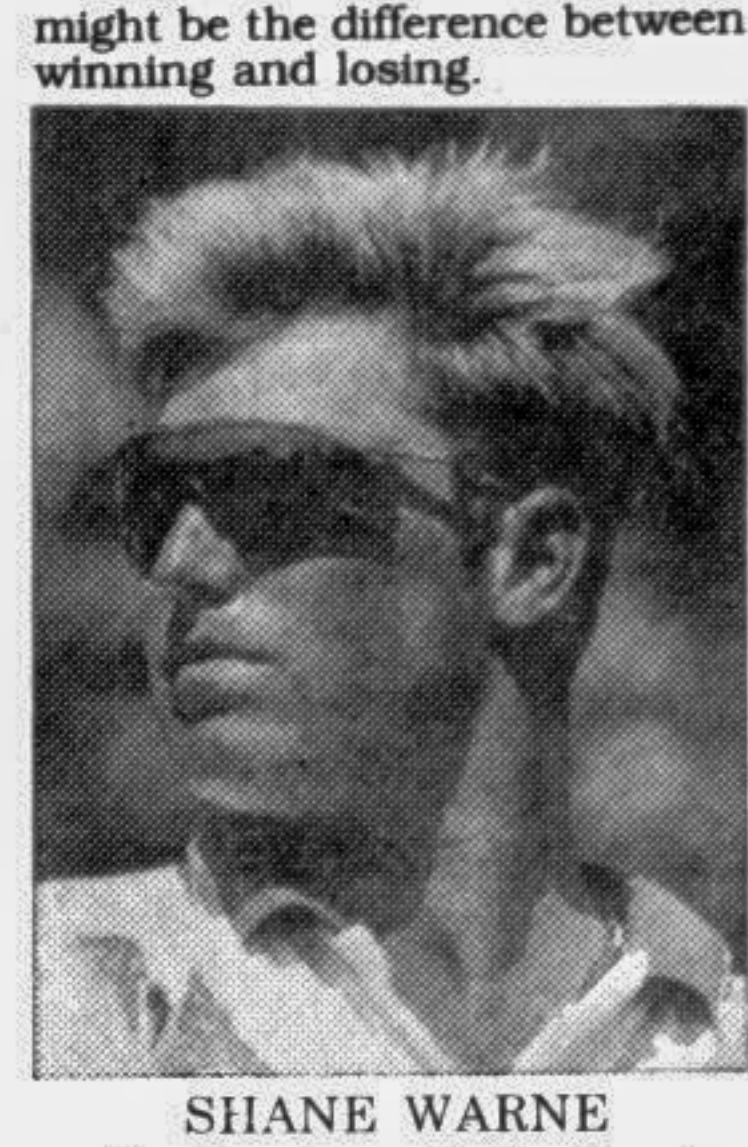

LEEDS, May 20: England's cricketers plan to unravel the mystery of Shane Warne's wrist spin by watching television over the next few days, reports Reuters.

They are to view the latest slow motion video pictures of Warne as they prepare for their first confrontation of the season with the Australian leg-break maestro.

England face Australia in a three-match limited over series starting here at Headingley on Thursday continuing at the Oval on Saturday and ending at Lord's on Sunday.

Coach David Lloyd has provided his England squad with video film of Warne in action during the touring team's one-day match against Worcestershire on Sunday.

Lloyd said on Monday, "Video analysis is part of your armoury. All the other international coaches use them, too, and what we are all looking for is that extra 10 per cent — something that gives you an edge and might be the difference between winning and losing."

SHANE WARNE

Captain Mike Atherton's squad were also provided with their new cricket code, detailed in a 28-page England players' handbook, when they gathered in Leeds.

Included in the document are sections covering betting, punctuality, dressing room privacy and the need to promote cricket in a positive manner when dealing with the media.

Lloyd said, "we as an England team, and representing English cricket, have a new corporate image and we wanted to take the players through the things they will now have to adhere to."

2 Russian booters punished

MOSCOW, May 20: Two players from Russian First Division side Lokomotiv Chita were banned for 10 games by the league disciplinary committee on Monday after assaulting the referee in a match last week, reports Reuters.
