LDF protests Fujimori's visit

Left Democratic Front (LDF) staged a black flag demonstration in the city yesterday protesting the visit to Bangladesh of Peruvian President Alberto Fujimori from today, reports UNB.

"Killer Fujimori, go back," chanted LDF activists as they brought out a procession condemning the president of the South American country where some left rebels were killed by commandos to end a hostage drama.

LDF, an alliance of eight left-leaning parties, also held a rally in front of the National Press Club and condemned the government for inviting Fujimori to visit the country.

Its coordinator Nirmal Sen read out a declaration in the rally attended by some 500 people with black flags and fastoons. Faiz Ahmed, Barrister Lutfur Rahman Shahjahan, Quamrul Ahsan and Kafi Ratan addressed the rally.

25-bed diabetic hospital opens in Sylhet

Speaker Humayun Rasheed Chowdhury yesterday inaugurated a 25-bed diabetic hospital at Furan Lane in Sylhet, reports BSS.

Addressing the inaugural ceremony as the chief guest the Speaker said the institution would enable to ease the sufferings of the patients of this area.

Chaired by Dr MA Raquib, former finance minister M Saifur Rahman MP also spoke on the occasion as special guest while Syeda Jebunnesa Huq MP and Sylhet Pourasabha Chairman Badruddin Ahmed Kamran were present on the occasion.

Recalling the great contribution of late Dr Ibrahim Chowdhury said, Dr Ibrahim was an illustrious son of the soil who established a well-equipped diabetic hospital (BIRDEM) in Dhaka which was internationally recognised for its standard.

Earlier, the Speaker laid a foundation stone of a four-storied building of Blue Bird High School.
