Appeal for help

A student of BBA first year honours class of Islamic University has appealed to well-to-do persons of the society to donate generously for saving his promising life from untimely inevitable death, our Jhenidah correspondent reports.

Zamirul Islam Shamim, a meritorious student of the university has been suffering from heart ailment due to his inborn heart leakage for a long time. This was detected when Shamim went to Birla Heart Research Centre in India some time back for a check-up.

The consultants of the research centre informed him that the heart which he is bearing is inborn leak. At least Taka two lakh is required for his treatment, the consultants informed.

Shamim's father is a poor farmer at village Harinakundu thana in the district. He has appealed to kind hearted persons to extend their helping hands through donation to Account No. 2415, Agrani Bank, Islamic University branch, Kushtia.

Call to create awareness about sexual abuse of children

State Minister for Social Welfare and Women and Children Affairs Dr Mozammel Hossain has emphasised on creating awareness about sexual abuse of children, reports UNB.

"Eradication and prevention of this phenomenon could be possible if awareness were created among the masses," Dr Mozammel told a two-day workshop on "Sexual Exploitation of Children" held at the auditorium of Women's Voluntary Association in the city yesterday.

The government is committed to protect the rights and privileges of children, the minister said adding that a number of steps against sexual exploitation of children have already been taken.

Organised by "Breaking the Silence," an NGO, the opening session of the workshop was addressed by Chitra Bhat-tacharaya, MP, and Swedish Ambassador Andres Johnson. Development activist Afsan Chowdhury gave a brief on various aspects of sexual abuse of children.

Begum Rokeya Mannan, Head Mistress of Agrani Girls High School and member of the organisation, presided over the opening session.

About 200 participants including NGO representatives, sociologists, doctors, nurses and police are attending the workshop.
