Clarification

The government has noticed with deep concern that a section of the press has been trying to confuse people by publishing false, baseless, fabricated and motivated reports on religious issues, a PID handout said yesterday, reports BSS.

The hand out said that the reports on the suspension of broadcasting of ajan through the regional transmission centre of Bangladesh Television at Chittagong was baseless and motivated.

The Chittagong transmission centre broadcasts its own programmes from 6 pm to 7 pm every day. During this time, the ajan of magreb is being broadcast regularly.

The transmission of Chittagong centre was temporarily stopped on May 19 and 20 following suspension of power supply due to cyclonic storm. But the programme of Dhaka centre was broadcast through the Chittagong centre and the magreb ajan was also broadcast.

The government hopes that the concerned newspapers would refrain from confusing the religious minded people and demonstrate honesty and responsibility for the sake of publishing objective news, the handout added.

Classes of BIT, Rajshahi resume June 3

RAJSHAH, May 27: All classes of Bangladesh Institute of Technology (BIT) Rajshahi, will resume from June 3, reports BSS.

The residential halls of the institute will be reopened on June 2, G M Habibullah, Director, BIT, today said the decision to reopen the institute was taken at a meeting of the academic council.

The institute was closed sine die following a series of clashes between two rival students groups on the campus on May 14.
