Tk 1 cr GSS cyclone rehabilitation project

Gana Sahajjo Sangstha (GSS) has taken a project of Taka one crore to assist the people in building houses in the cyclone ravaged areas, a press release of the GSS said yesterday.

GSS will build some cyclone shelters in the affected coastal areas.

The engineers of GSS are assessing the extent of damage and a 29-member team of the organisation along with local representatives are working in the cyclone-hit areas.

The organisation has distributed relief materials to the affected people of Banskhali on May 21 and May 25.

It has distributed money to buy clothes for 1200 students of Anondoniketan Primary School.

Multi-media chief of the GSS Syed Bazley Hussain, central relief coordinator Kazi M A Hashem Imdadul Huq and other officials of this NGO are visiting the cyclone-hit areas to plan further programmes for the victims of cyclone in the coastal areas.
