Nat'l forum on environment suggested

President of Federation of Bangladesh Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FBCCI) Yusuf Abdullah Harun yesterday suggested formation of a national forum on the environment with representatives of a cross section of people including the entrepreneurs, professionals, NGOs and environmental journalists, reports BSS.

He said the representatives of the concerned organisations, trades and professions could sit together after the budget session of the parliament to discuss the issue of forming the proposed national forum on the environment.

He was speaking at an open discussion on "environmental policy issues, awareness and legal dimensions" organised by the Forum of Environmental Journalists of Bangladesh (FEJB) in collaboration with the Ministry of Environment and Forest (MOEF) Department Of Environment (DOE) and ADAB at the Engineers Institution premise in the city yesterday.

Chaired by the Joint Secretary of the Ministry of Environment and Forest K M Ehsanul Haq the discussion was taken part by the chairpersons of Coalition of Environmental NGOs Khushi Kabir, Chairperson of Coastal Area Resources Development and Management, Association (CARDMA) Hasna Moudud, NEMAP formulation mission leader Dr Mahfu Haq, DOE Director Reazuddin Ahmed, FEJB Chairman Ahmed Noor-e-Alam, Vice-Chairman Gazur Rahman, DOE Deputy Director Abdul Malek, FEJB members Shehabuddin Ahmed, Mostafa Kamal Majumder, Elahi Newaz Khan, Sharif Sahabuddin, Abdul Jalil Bhuiyan, Badul Alam and Moinuddin Naser. Ehsanul Haq said the forum will be formed from UNDP and AKM Azad from Agricultural Extension Department.

Utilisation of services of imams suggested

Speakers at a meeting Wednesday suggested utilising the services of the country's religious leaders including imams of the mosques, in carrying the messages to the people for women and children development, reports BSS.

The suggestion came in the advocacy and coordination meeting on "Media activities for realising the development targets for the child and woman in Bangladesh" held in the conference room of the Deputy Commissioner of Dhaka.

Presided over by the Deputy Director of the Divisional and District Information Office, the meeting was attended by Deputy Commissioner Dhaka MA Mo-brak as the chief guest while Director of the Mass Communication Directorate Mridula Bhattacharya and Civil Surgeon AKM Fazul Haque were present as special guests.

Thana Nirbahi Officer (TNO) of Keraniganj Mohammad Zulfikar Ali, Thana Health and Family Welfare Officer Mohammad Nazrul Islam and Assistant Director of Islamic Research Cell Mohammad Abbas Uddin also participated in the meeting.

The speakers said the elected representatives of rural area should be involved in the development projects of children and women. The imams of our country can play a vital role to transmit the development-oriented messages to the innocent people of the country, they said.

Call for sit-in June 11

By Staff Correspondent

The Samajtantrik Khetmujur and Krishak Front has called a sit-in at 11:00 am, in front of the Secretariat on June 11, for implementation of its eight-point demand, said a press release.

The organisation had already observed sit-in, in front of the offices of the deputy commissioners across the country Wednesday and also submitted a memorandum to the DCs containing their demands.

The demands include allocation of 40 per cent of the revenue budget for agriculture, introducing of rural rationing system for farm labourers in rural areas across the country, job security for them throughout the year and withdrawal of certificate cases filed against farmer.

Obituary

Bidhu Bhushan Sen, a former principal of Mirpur Technical Training Centre died on Wednesday. He was 80, says a press release.

Late Principal Sen played a significant role in promotion of vocational and technical education. He actively participated in the War of Liberation and was in-charge of youth camps and education in north-east zone under the then Mujibnagar government.

He left behind his wife and two sons.
