Bhairab-Ashuganj bridge over Meghna soon

LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Zillur Rahman yesterday said Bhairab-Ashuganj Bridge over the river Meghna will be constructed soon to establish direct road-link between Dhaka and Sylhet, reports BSS.

The minister said this bridge will bring a radical change in the lives of millions of people of Brahmanbaria, Bhairab, Ashuganj, Kishoreganj, Sylhet and other adjoining areas as there will be a boost in business, trade and other economic activities after its construction.

Rahman was addressing the installation ceremony of the newly elected office bearers of Brahmanbaria Thana Samity at GPO auditorium in the city yesterday.

Zillur Rahman said government is trying to follow balanced development strategies with priorities for the neglected regions in the country.

He said Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and her government is pledge-bound to ensure proper and balanced development to all areas of the country.

The minister said "government has taken steps to develop strong rural infrastructures by constructing bridges, roads, culverts and other physical facilities."

The minister, in his speech paid tributes to late Abdul Kuddus Makhon, one of the pioneer freedom fighters of the Liberation War.

President of Brahmanbaria Thana Samity MA Matin chaired the discussion while it was addressed by former member of the parliament Lutful Hye Shachu, RAJUK chairman Mohammad Humayun Khadem and RAM Abulduktadir, private secretary to the Prime Minister. Begum Hasmat Jahan Makhon, wife of late Abdul Kuddus Makhon gave vote of thanks.

The minister requested the members of the Samity to introduce scholarships for the talented students and launch literacy programmes to supplement government efforts in eradicating illiteracy.

A twenty-four member executive committee was formed with MA Matin as president and Mohammad Alamgir Mia as general secretary of the Samity.
