BSD protests govt decision to raise fertiliser price

By Staff Correspondent

Leaders of the Bangladesh Samajtantrik Dal (BSD), at a rally yesterday strongly protested the government's recent decision to raise prices of fertiliser.

The rally was held in front of the Jatiya Press Club, said a press release.

The speakers said the policy to gradually increase prices of agricultural inputs will have a negative impact on the farmers.

They said 35 per cent revenue earning comes from agriculture sector alone. In one hand, prices of almost all agri-inputs have been raised, while on the other, prices of agri-products have been reduced.

To reduce subsidy and check fertiliser smuggling from the country, price of a bag of urea has been raised by Tk 54.00 while price of each bag of TSP has been raised by Tk 82.00.

JCD blasts cut in Khaleda's security forces

Leaders of Jatiyatabdhi Chhatra Dal (JCD) yesterday protested the withdrawal of police force engaged in maintaining security of Leader of the Opposition Begum Khaleda Zia, reports UNB.

They also protested what they called attempts on the life of Begum Zia's eldest son Tareq Rahman and younger brother Major (retd) Syed Iskander.

The Bangladesher Samajtantrik Dal (BSD) brought out a procession protesting the govt decision to raise price of fertiliser.
