BCSA delegation
meets Tofael

By Staff Correspondent

A delegation of the Bangladesh Cold Storage Association (BCSA) met Commerce and Industries Minister Tofael Ahmed in the city yesterday to protest any move to import 15 lakh metric tons of potato from India.

A press release of the association, signed by BCSA chairman Md Nurul Islam, said, the minister had assured the delegation that potato would not be imported from India.

According to the press release, a record 24 lakh MT of potato were produced in the country this year and this was enough to meet the domestic demand. Besides, 11 MT more potato were stored in 256 cold storages across the country.
