Curriculae, syllabi for KG schools to be published soon

Curriculae and syllabi intended for kindergarten (KG) schools in Bangladesh, prepared by the Worldview Institute of Childhood Education (WICE), will be published soon, reports BSS.

Chairman of Worldview Bangladesh and Rector of WICE Dr KM Sirajul Islam said this at the closing session of a basic training course for kindergarten teachers on 'childhood education' at Worldview premises in the city yesterday.

Dr Islam said the first kindergarten curriculae and the syllabi have been prepared by a group of experts in the field suiting the needs of the children, and befitting national tradition and culture. This will meet the long felt demand of several thousand kindergarten schools in the country, he said.

Referring to teaching aids of KG students, he said by the end of August WICE will set up a sales centre at its premises for teaching aids and educational toys produced by it.

Former secretary Manzurul Karim was present as the chief guest. President of Japanese Society for Promoting Intercultural Education for Children (SPIEC) Hettaro Adachi also spoke on the occasion.
