BCB's final fourteen

Seven players of the victorious ICC team were left out when Bangladesh Cricket Board (BCB) announced its 14member national squad for the sixth Asia Cup yesterday.

The selection of the fourteen for the four-nation tourney. scheduled to begin in Colombo from July 14, however, quite expectedly reflected the philosophy of the newly appointed panel to inject as many as fresh bloods in the national team.

The three playing members of the axed seven are one-down Sanwar Hossain, all-rounder Khaled Mahmood Sujon and wicketkeeper-cum opener Jahangir Alam.

Although Sanwar and Sujon managed to be in the three-man stand-by list, it was Jahangir, who along with the other three non-playing members of the ICC team — opener Javed Omar Belim Golla, left-arm seamer Anisur Rahman and pacer Za-kir Hossain — failed to impress the selectors.

Injured star left-arm spinner Mohammad Rafique is the notable omission in the squad. The southpaw, one of the heroes in Bangladesh's success story in Malaysia, has now been nursing his ruptured right-ankle.

Five new players - Habibul Bashar Sumon, Shahriar Hossain Bidyut, Sheikh Salahuddin. Zakir Hossain and Mofizur Rahman Munna — have got the nod of the five-member selection committee. Of the five new entrants, Za-

Defending joint-champions Regensea Lines got off to a sound start in the Office cricket league with 45-run victory against Manami International at the Dhanmondi Cricket Stadium yesterday.

Batting first, the holders piled up a commanding total of 231 before being all out with more than two overs to spare in the 40-over-a-side affair. Opener Wahid, who plays for Kalabagan in the Dhaka League. top-scored with a swashbuckling 65 off 63 balls. The dashing right-hander cracked nine fours and a sixer in his blazing knock.

A portly Zakaria Imtiaz scored a rapid-fire 40 off 47 deliveries while one -down Azam with 36 was the other notable Regensea run-getter.

Skipper Akram, who is also the captain of the national team, made only nine before running himself out. But the big Chittagonian was in the thick of things in restricting Manami to 168. Akram captured two wickets for only 18 runs to return the most successful figures among the Regensea bowlers.

England remain unchanged

LONDON, June 15: England's selectors named an unchanged squad of 13 today for the second Ashes Test against Australia starting at Lord's on Thursday, reports Reuter.

Chairman David Graveney said he and fellow selectors Mike Gatting and Graham Gooch "did not take very long" confirming by telephone on Saturday night they wanted to keep the same squad. Michael Atherton's team lead the six-match series 1-0 after winning the first Test at Edgbaston by nine wickets. This squad has been picked with the same principles as the first Test — to cover all the options before we get to Lord's and see the pitch," said Graveney. He said England's manage ment were intending to make a decision on their final 11 on Tuesday so the two omitted players could be available for county championship duty the following day. If all-rounder, Adam Hollioake and left-arm spinner Phil Tufnell are again left out, England would be fielding the same 11 for the first time in 34 home Tests.

Ashley Cowan, Essex's uncapped paceman, is added to the squad for experience as England continue a policy they started by taking Surrey's promising fast bowler Alex Tudor to the Edgbaston Test preparations.

The surprisingly facile passage of the sky blues against Ajax, one of the five forerunners in the fray, was engineered by the two Indian stalwarts — Dhanraj Pillay and Sabu Varki.

The Indian duo, making their Dhaka league debut for Abahani shared the first two goals of their side's unassailable 4-0 lead at the breather.

Pillay, the star Indian centre-forward who had earlier donned the sky blue colours early this year in a couple of club level tournaments, opened the account even before Ajax settled down. The dark horse, instrumen-

While Sabu, who in his maiden appearance in the domestic hockey impressed the audience, took another one minute to make it 2-0 converting the second penalty corner. Ajax's misery compounded with the progress of the lopsided affair when Abahani's inside-left Ramiz struck twice in a span of 13 minutes.

Although the reinforcement of Abahani, who in a desperate attempt to keep themselves afloat brought in the two Indian's helped a lot to motivate themselves into a cohesive force, Ajax appeared to have lost the battle even before the start of the game.

With the midfield of the Elephant Road outfit failing to wrest the initiative even after Abahani resigned to a casual approach, the upfront ran like headless chickens throughout the proceedings.

In the second half Abahani pressed for more and were duly rewarded with two more goals with centre-forward Alamgir Alam notching the fifth in the 45th minute. Pillay then sealed the fate of the match with a gem of a goal, a reverse shot from deep inside the danger zone, eight minutes from
