Chairman of Law Reforms Commission calls on President

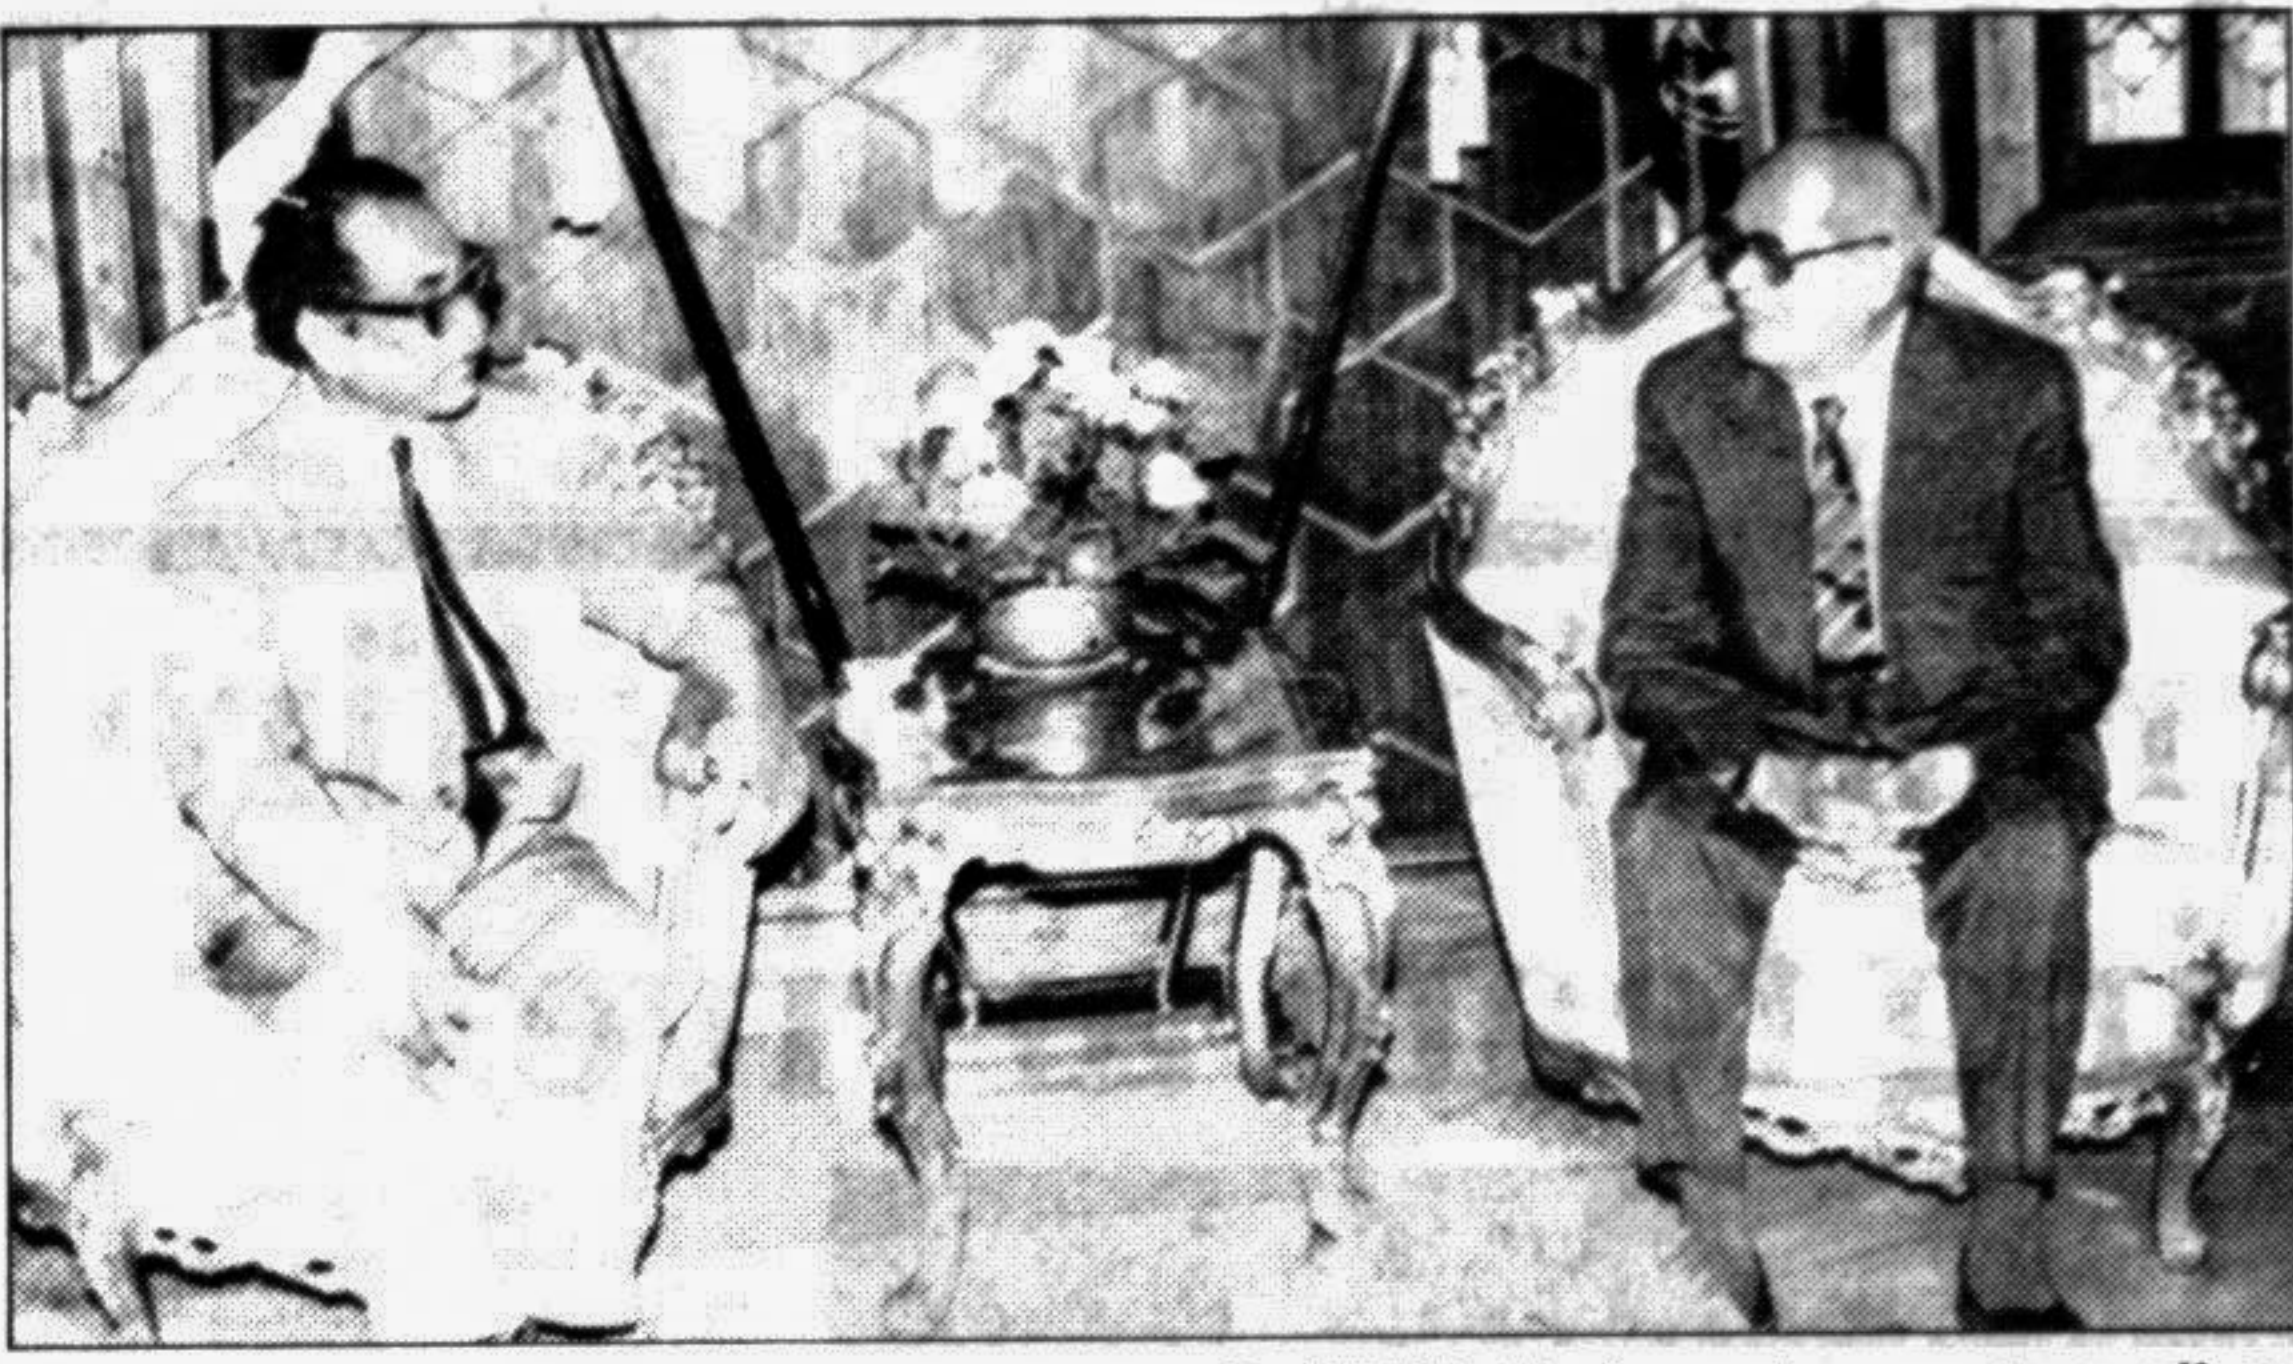

President Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed said for various reasons laws are not being enforced in many cases, reports UNB.

He said this in response to an observation made by Chairman of the Law Reforms Commission former Chief Justice F K M A Munim during a courtesy call on the President at Bangabhaban yesterday.

The chairman apprised the President of the progress of work of the commission.

Justice Munim emphasised the enforcement of law because "mere reforming a law without its implementation will be of no use."

The President agreed that while law should be reformed suiting the changing circumstances, "enforcement of law is the need of the hour."

3 books of Asiatic Society

The Asiatic Society of Bangladesh brought out three books in English language on archaeological survey of historical monuments of Bangladesh-Mainamati-Devaparvata, Sonargaon-Panam & Gawr-Lakhsnawati. Eminent researchers and archaeological luminaries contributed to these books, says a press release.

Prof A B M Hussain, Department of Islamic History and Culture, Rajshahi University, has edited the trios. The books will afford our researchers and readers of archaeological study a chance to enlighten their experiences and ideas about our ancient historical monuments now lying in different parts of the country.
