McEnroe-Kriek finale

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 16: John McEnroe defeated Mel Purcell 7-5, 4-6, 11-9 Sunday to advance to the finals of the Big Bear Championships men's 35-and-over tournament, reports AP.

McEnroe, winner of seven Grand Slam singles titles, will play Johan Kriek for the championship of the 150,000 dollars tournament Monday night at New Albany Country Club. Kriek defeated John Lloyd 7-6, 7-6.

McEnroe's victory avenged a 6-3, 7-5 loss to Purcell, the tennis coach at Murray State, four months ago in the Nuveen Masters.

Kriek, winner of the Australian Open in 1981 and 1982, had 10 aces.

McEnroe and Kriek have played 23 times, 17 on the men's tour and six on the Nuveen tour. McEnroe leads the series 17-6.

Windies win in style

ST JOHN'S, Antigua, June 16: Opening batsmen Stuart Williams and Sherwin Campbell shared a partnership of 160 to lead the West Indies to a comfortable victory over Sri Lanka midway through the third day of the first Cable and Wireless Cricket Test here Sunday, report agencies.

Williams hit an enterprising 83 and Campbell a more sedate 79 as the home team wiped off a tricky target of 187 in explosive fashion. The West Indies won by six wickets 45 minutes before tea. Carl Hooper finishing the match with a six.

The Sri Lankans, resuming on 151 for eight in their second innings, lasted just two balls in the morning.

The first was a no-ball, then Franklin Rose caught in the gully for a duck sparring at a short delivery next ball. Hashan Tillekeratne, who had his right forearm broken in the first innings by Courtney Walsh, was unable to bat.

Rose ended with three wickets for 43 off nine overs. Curtly Ambrose had three for 41 off nine overs.

The win was achieved but not without some drama as four wickets tumbled in the final hour of the match, three to off-spin bowler Muttiah Muralitharan, who ended the match with figures of eight for 106.

The stand between Campbell and Williams was only the second over 100 for the first wicket between a pair of West Indies opening batsmen since Gordon Greenidge's acrimonious departure in 1991 that split his famed partnership with fellow Barbadian Desmond Haynes.

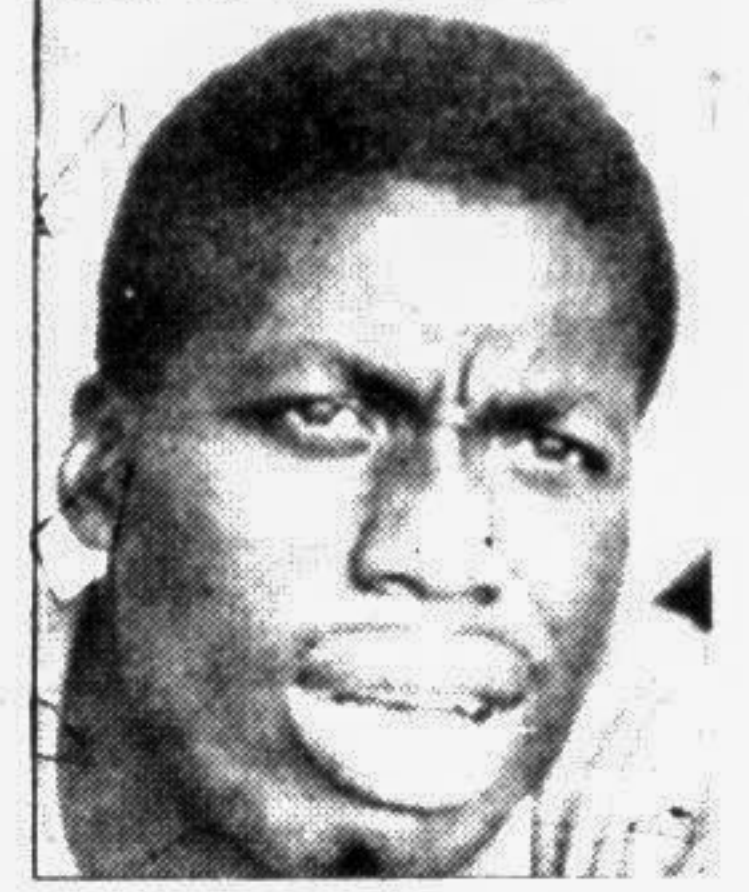

There was always going to be a definite result on Sunday but no one knew it would have been as conclusive, considering the untrustworthy nature of the pitch.

However, Campbell and Williams erased any doubts about who would win in the first century stand since Haynes and Phil Simmons added 122 against Pakistan in Bridgetown four years ago.

In a volley of strokes, Campbell and Williams fixed West Indies onto the path of victory in a century partnership that was West Indies' first in 36 Test matches.

None of the Sri Lankan bowlers could put a proper cork on the West Indies scoring rate as Williams hit 12 fours and two sixes and Campbell, who gained a reprieve on 31 when he was dropped by slip fielder

Towards the end, Muralitharan sent ripples through West Indies batting when he had Williams caught in the deep. Campbell caught at short fine leg and Brian Lara also caught in the deep for four.

The West Indian batting star launched his first delivery over mid-wicket for four. He tried to repeat the stroke next ball but got a leading edge to give Liyanage another catch in the deep.

Kumara Dharmasena added the wicket of Floyd Reifer, bowled with a fastery over mid-wicket for four. He tried to repeat the stroke next ball but got a leading edge to give Liyanage another catch in the deep.

Kumara Dharmasena added the wicket of Floyd Reifer, bowled with a faster yorker, before Hooper ended the match with his big hit off Muralitharan.

Curtly Ambrose, whose eight wickets for 78 in the match sent him past 300 Test wickets, earned the man-of-the-match award.

The West Indies lead the two-match series 1-0 heading in to the second Test at Arnos Vale, St. Vincent starting Friday.

Law powers Essex

LONDON, June 16: Australia's Stuart Law hammered 123 to carry Essex to an eight-wicket victory over Sussex in an English Sunday league 40-over match at Hove, reports Reuter.

Law, who raced past the century-mark in just 76 balls, put on an opening partnership of 199 runs with Paul Prichard (68) as Essex eased past Sussex's 216 for six, with almost 10 overs to spare.

Fast bowler Ashley Cowan, named in the England squad on Sunday for the second Test against Australia starting on Thursday, celebrated with three for 33 for Essex.

England captain Mike Atherton warmed up for the Lord's Test with an unbeaten 90 in Lancashire's 17-run victory over Kent at Old Trafford.

Lancashire made 172 for three from a reduced 35 overs and then skittled Kent out for 155, with Glen Chapple taking three for 22.

Atherton's England teammate Graham Thorpe continued his fine run of form, striking an unbeaten 100 to guide Surrey to a five-wicket win against Yorkshire at the Oval.

Glamorgan gained some revenge for their dismal batting performance in a county championship match the previous day, overcoming Middlesex by six wickets in Cardiff.

The Welsh side crashed to 31 all out to lose by over an innings to Middlesex on Saturday but thanks to an unbeaten 71 by Matthew Maynard cruised to their victory target of 186 in 35.3 overs.

Warwickshire made a remarkable 201 for six from their rain-reduced 20 overs to beat Derbyshire by 108 runs at Edgbaston.

Neil Smith hammered a quickfire 60 and Dougie Brown a 19-ball half-century.

Worcestershire fell just one run short of victory against Gloucestershire (177 all out) at Bristol after Stuart Lampitt, needing a boundary off the last ball, could manage only two.

Lankan injury list

ST JOHN'S, Antigua, June 16: Sri Lanka, beset by injuries on their West Indies cricket tour, have summoned two players as replacements for batsman Hashan Tillekeratne and fast bowler Nuwan Zoysa, reports AP.

Naveed Nawaz, a left-handed batsman, and Ruwan Kalpage, an off-spinning all-rounder, are flying to the Caribbean in time for the second and final Test starting Friday in St Vincent.

Nawaz, 23, has yet to appear in a Test, but played for Sri Lanka A against the West Indies.

A team last winter in Sri Lanka, Kalpage, 27, has played nine Tests, taking 35 expensive wickets and scoring 270 runs.

Tillekeratne had his right forearm fractured by Courtney Walsh in the first innings of the current first Test. He will take no further part in the match.

Left-arm pacer Zoysa's tour had to be aborted after he was diagnosed with a stress fracture of his back. The teenager appeared only in the tourists' opening match, a one-day warm-up against Trinidad and Tobago.

The Sri Lankans also have an injury worry surrounding batsman Marvan Atapattu. He was hit on the right index finger in the nets on the eve of the first Test and the blow was sufficiently serious to rule him out of the match.

Even before the tour began, left-arm pacer Chaminda Vaas had to withdraw with a back injury. Vaas, the spearhead of the Sri Lankan attack, was replaced in the squad by Ravindra Pushpakumara.

Bolivia in Round Two

LA PAZ, Bolivia, June 16: Bolivia have qualified for the second round of the Copa America with a 2-0 win over Peru, while Uruguay kept their championship hopes alive by defeating Venezuela 2-0, reports AP.

Bolivia now have six points to lead Group B, guaranteeing a spot in the next round. The first two positions in each group and the best two third place winners will continue to the second round. Peru and Uruguay each have three points.

Peru must still play Venezuela, who have lost two games, on Wednesday. Uruguay will play Bolivia in La Paz.

Venezuela still have a chance of moving to the second round but would have to defeat Peru on Wednesday.

In Group C, Argentina and Ecuador have almost classified with four points. Paraguay will attempt to remain in the running when they play Argentina on Tuesday.

Chile, in last place in Group A with one point, need a bit of luck to advance to the next round. They must defeat Ecuador. Paraguay must lose to Argentina and at least one third-place winner must not have more than three points.

The situation is not as clear in Group C where only one round has been played. Brazil and Mexico have three points as a result of victories against Costa Rica and Colombia.

Brazil play Mexico and Colombia against Costa Rica on Monday.

In Sunday's game, Alvaro Recoba scored in the 18th minute and Marcelo Saralegui in the 47th minute, giving former Copa champions Uruguay a victory for Group 18.

Venezuela played with only ten men for 50 minutes after Robert Rodallega was expelled for rough play.

Uruguay lost in the first round 1-0 to Peru and even in this game did not show skills it has displayed in other games. After scoring twice, Uruguay did not seem too interested in scoring any more goals.

The game was played in the colonial city of Sucre that is located at an altitude of 2,800 metres (9,200 feet).

Mantilla clips Kuerten's wings

BOLOGNA, June 16: Gustavo Kuerten crumbled in the final of the Carlsberg International tournament just a week after capturing the French Open, losing to 16th-ranked Felix Mantilla Sunday, reports AP.

After winning the first set 6-4, the Brazilian quickly went down 6-2, 6-1 to Mantilla of Spain, the second-seed in the $28,000 dollars clay court event.

Mike likes same faces

LONDON, June 16: Mike Atherton is ready to lead an unchanged side in to what he describes as a massive week for both himself and England's Ashes challenge, reports AP.

Atherton is not completely ruling out playing two spinners in the second Test at Lord's but all indications are that England will field the same 11 in successive home Tests for the first time in six years.

England's skipper is just one of two survivors — Devon Malcolm is the other — from the team which beat West Indies at Headingley in 1991 and were then retained for the second

Porto's third in a row

LISBON, June 16: FC Porto's 3-0 win over Gil Vicente in the last round of Portuguese soccer championship Sunday was little more than a celebration of their third consecutive championship title and victory by 13 points, reports AP.

Mielcarski, Sergio Conceicao and Carlos Filipe notched goals to lift FC Porto to their seventh title in 10 years with 85 points to Sporting's 72.

Test at Lord's.

Atherton said: "It's nice to be able to have some continuity, because that is a good thing for the team."

"Nine of the side which won at Edgbaston also played in the Test victories at Wellington and Christchurch at the end of the New Zealand tour."

"It's a fair guess that we will keep the side together, after doing so well in the first Test."

"But much also depends on how we find the pitch when we get to Lord's. If we think conditions are right for them then we will have no hesitation in playing both our spinners."

As it Edgbaston, however, it is expected that Surrey captain Adam Hobbie and Middlesex slow left arm Phil Tufnell will miss out.

If so, the pair will be released on Tuesday so that they can take part in the round of championship games beginning the following day.

Ashley Cowan, Essex's 22-year-old uncapped paceman, will join England's squad at Lord's and stay on until after the Test starts on Thursday.

Cowan's selection is in line with England's policy of including a promising younger player in their Test build-up this summer, but he will also be acting as fast bowling cover in case of emergencies on Thursday morning.

And either Holloake or Tufnell, if they are the pair omitted, could still be called back from their country games if late illness or warm-up injury occurs.

But England go confidently into a Lord's week in which Atherton, awarded the OBE on Saturday, will break Peter May's 41-Test record as England captain.
