'2800 more govt flats to be built'

The number of government quarters for government officers and employees is 17,924 in 11 categories, the Minister for Post, Telecommunications, Public Works and Housing Mohammad Nasim told the Jatiya Sangsad yesterday, reports BSS.

In reply to a question from Mir Sakawat Ali Daru (AL-Bagerhat), the minister said the categories of the quarters are: Bungalow types, superior type, F-type, E-type, D-type, temporary housing, C-type, B-type, A-type, B+ abandoned house and dormitory.

The minister said, 2,500 more flats would be constructed all over the country and 300 flats would be constructed in Gulshan area in the city as early as possible.

"So far, 1,250 flats have been built out of the total 2,000 under-construction flats," he said adding that the construction of 300 more flats would be completed soon.

Nasim said, if the Sangsad approves, local and foreign construction companies can be invited to build multi-storied buildings on government lands for government officers, employees and others, especially for the lower income groups.

"Government employees and officers can take possession of such houses by paying the first instalment and will become the owners after full payment of the total price," he said replying to a supplementary from A S M Firoze (AL-Pirojpur).
