

Pick of the week

The Movie

Wide Sargasso Sea
Based on Jean Rhys's haunting and well-loved novel, this passionate film is a story of obsession, voodoo and madness. Set on the island of Jamaica in the 1940s, it centres on one young woman's awakening as she struggles through a devastating childhood and an arranged marriage in a world dominated by men. "Wide Sargasso Sea... is the expression of the whole of her: of her artistic strength and her psychic weakness; of her literary genius and her personal despair," explains Rhys biographer Carol Angier. This tale of beauty and bewitchment stars Karina Lombard, Nathaniel Parker, Michael York and Rachel Ward. The score was composed by Stewart Copeland, one of the founding members of the rock group The Police. June 24 at 12:00 pm on Star Movie.

The Serial

The X-File
In Talitha Cumi, after her mother suffers a stroke, Mulder searches for an alien being who possesses miraculous healing powers. At the muddy beach fronts summer home in Rhode Island, Mrs Mulder is approached by the Cigarette Smoking Man. They become embroiled in a heated argument. Shortly thereafter, Mulder receives word that his mother was rushed to an emergency room in serious condition. Accompanied by Scully, Mulder races to the hospital. From her bed, Mrs Mulder asks her son for a pen. She then writes the word "palm" on a sheet of note paper... June 25 Star Movie on 10:30 pm

The Show

In Pursuit of Nirvana
All art aspires to the condition of music; and all artists seek their own form of nirvana. Ace sculptor Hamiduzzaman, who has been searching for his nirvana, is going to mount his oeuvre, done in the process of his journey towards the nirvana during the past two years, at Divine Art Gallery, Sonargaon Hotel. The week-long show's body is made up of watercolours and steel welded sculptures and will run until June 27 from 9 am to 9 pm everyday.

RETROSPECTIVE

"Wonderbird" of the New German Cinema
Rainer Werner Fassbinder, a celebrated cult figure of the New German Cinema had successfully directed more than twenty full-length feature films and eleven full length television productions during his lifetime. In keeping with the Brechtian Legacy, virtually of his films were cerebral and deductive serving as vehicles for the denunciation of bourgeois values. His entire oeuvre shares in common the theme of the alienation of the individual through social oppression. Stylized acting, mannered dialogues and static camera movements are the hallmarks of an awe-inspiring talent that earned him an almost legendary stature. Chalachitram Film Society and the Goethe Institut jointly organize the Fassbinder Retrospective screening six of his best films from 22 to 24 June at the Goethe Institut, Dhaka.

Spotlight

A Grand old man turned 75

Shafuddin Ahmed is a respected name in the history of fine arts in Bangladesh, the Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy is celebrating the diamond jubilee birth anniversary of the artist with befitting reverence and felicitation on 23rd June at the Academy auditorium. His pioneering venture into the print-making has left a prodigious legacy for the posterity. In his reclusive (the artist has not held any exhibitions for the last twenty years or so), hiding from the eyes of the world his creative imagination continues to find expression in brilliant pieces of art. The Academy decided to break the ice and bring the artist once again under the limelight to confer the much deserved homage. The programmes include a print exhibition dedicated to the artist followed by Sareed recital, dance and music.
