Razzak tells engineers

Formulate plan to maintain country's ecological balance

CHITTAGONG, June 21: Water Resources Minister Abdur Razzak today urged all including the engineers to formulate an integrated plan on the basis of our own resources for maintaining ecological balance in the country, reports BSS.

He said this while addressing a seminar on "Impact of flood control project on our environment," organised by the Institution of Engineers, Bangladesh, Chittagong centre, in its auditorium this evening.

The minister said, "We have already formed a water council and are going to formulate a water policy."

He said as there had been no water sharing treaty with India for a long time, the environment of South-Western region of Bangladesh suffered a very badly. The salinity has increased in the area and the flora and fauna of the Sundarbans have suffered. To restore the ecological balance of the area, it is essential to build a barrage across the Ganges, he added.

Chairman of IEB, Chittagong centre, JSM Bakhtiar, presided over the seminar while Prof Jahir Uddin Chowdhury of the Institute of Flood Control and Drainage Research of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) presented the keynote paper. Among others, the IEB central president and central secretary Dr Mohammad Anwarul Azim and Mohammad Nurul Huda addressed the seminar.

Abdur Razzak said due to strategic location of Bangladesh in deltaic flood plains we do not have any option but to take flood protection projects to improve the living condition of the common people. He said improved technology would be taken up for construction of the projects to maintain ecological balance.

The minister said the water sector projects could play a vital role in alleviation of poverty.

Due to these projects the country is now producing more than 200 million tons of food-grains annually and the communication system has improved tremendously, he said.

'Music Day' celebrated in city

By Staff Correspondent

Colourful papier mache musicians greeted the audience silently inside the gates of the Alliance Francaise yesterday on the first ever 'Fete de la Musique' (Music Day) to be held in the city.

The French Embassy, in conjunction with Alliance Francaise de Dhaka and Chittagong, organised the inaugural event. Music Day was started on June 21, 1982 in France to celebrate the most 'necessary of arts'. It is now held in over 80 countries for the 'pleasure of playing, listening, sharing.'

The National Folklore Team of Bangladesh kicked off the day's events with a performance of Bangla songs on drums, dotara and harmonium on the third floor while modern instrumental rock group 'Eclipse' electrified the crowd in Cafe 37.2.

But the day wasn't reserved just for music. A young girl from Krishna Das group, dressed in traditional blue and gold, performed a welcome dance and a theatre group, accompanied by musicians dressed in bright yellow, performed a musical drama, inspired by the Jatra, for a standing room only crowd.

Other events included an open stage for amateur and professional musicians, an exhibition of Bengali musical instruments and a festival of famous movie music from films like 'The Lion King' and 'Mary Poppins'.

Alliance Francaise also used the event to launch its 'Live Performing Club', a venue where musicians could play and exchange ideas in a casual atmosphere.

The local audience reacted positively to Music Day, despite the heat inside the small venue.

"All these different kinds of people coming together in the same place," said Javed, a 27-year-old painter. "Is a great way to meet people."

Anis Aftab agreed. He said this was the first time he had heard French music and was going to keep his eyes open for cassettes and CDs by other French artists.

"I don't have to learn French or German to understand because music is the universal language," he said.

Organisers were also pleased with the result. Dominique LaFont, director of the Cafe 37.2 stage, said she was happy Music Day's trial run in Bangladesh ran smoothly. She said two acts didn't show up, but other enthusiastic musicians were always ready to fill in the gaps.

She hoped Music Day would become an annual event, but they have had to cancel the show before.

"Last year we couldn't hold Music Day because of a hartal and the unstable political situation," said LaFont. "We had a group of guitarists flown in from Paris, but can't do that every year."

Some in the audience did not want to wait that long for the next Music Day.

"We should hold an event like this every two months in a bigger venue," said Javed. "They could also include other disciplines, like painting."

Emajuddin's daughter commits 'suicide'

By Staff Correspondent

A daughter of Prof Emajuddin Ahmed, former vice chancellor of Dhaka University, allegedly committed suicide in their residence at Elephant Road in the city yesterday morning.

Dil Afroz Rawnak Ara Tanzin, 33, was found hanging from a ceiling fan hook in the drawing room of the second-floor house at about 6:30 am. Police said, Rawnak's husband, Golam Kibria Talukder, found her wife hanging after returning from morning walk.

The reason behind the alleged suicide could not be known immediately.

Quoting the FIR filed with Dhanmondi thana, Police said Talukder, found two maids of the house standing in front of the main gate of the building.

Despite pressing the calling bell repeatedly, he got no response from inside.

Later, he climbed the building to go to his flat and called his daughter.

When his daughter entered the drawing room to open the door, she found her mother hanging and started screaming.

The family members took Rawnak, mother of two, to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) where doctors declared her dead, hospital sources said.

Talukder, a divisional engineer of the Bangladesh Telegraph and Telephone Board, filed an unnatural death case. Police sent the body for autopsy.
