July 14th at 10:30 pm on Star Plus In Hearts And Minds, a heart transplant recipient suspects the organ donor's past life is influencing the way he thinks.

Paramedics rush Henry Alden, a heart transplant recipient, into the emergency room after he complains of chest pain. Alden asks to speak with Robert Malzone, the husband of the organ donor. Alden claims that ever since the transplant, he has experienced new sensations he can only attribute to Malzone's wife. Malzone is psychologically unprepared to cope with Alden's description of his new experiences and leaves in an agitated state. Grad tells Alden about a medical condition called microchimerism wherein the body of a person receiving a transplanted organ develops a tolerance to the different genotype. Later, a nostalgic Malzone returns to the hospital with pictures of his wife, and recounts to Alden how they first met. With Austin's help, Malzone listens to his wife's heart beating inside Alden's body.

Star Sports carries the main trophies of English domestic cricket: Benson & Hedges Cup, NatWest Trophy, Axa Life League and Britannic Assurance Championship. Minor Counties are involved in the preliminary and first rounds of the Benson & Hedges Cup and NatWest Trophy. Both tournament's finals are played at Lord's (July 12 and September 6 respectively). The Benson & Hedges competition got underway in April while the NatWest Trophy begins on June 24.

July 12 7:30 pm Final anniversary final crowd at Lords 31 runs - it was their 12th one-day trophy. The Benson & Hedges Cup is neted for big scoring such as the record-breaking 388 for 7 by Essex against Scotland in 1992 and the highest score of 198 n.o. by Graham Gooch in 1982. There have also been incredible bowling performances including Wayne Daniel who took 7 for 12 for Middlesex against Minor Counties in 1978.

July 15 7:00 AXA Life League The Axa Life League carries perhaps the most prestigious trophy in English county cricket. Each county plays every other country in one day matches with 40 overs per side. The league began Sunday, April 27 and carries a £42,000 purse. Surrey put 14 years of frustration behind them by capturing the Sunday League title with a convincing seven-wicket win over Glamorgan in the 1996 season's final round. Surrey have been one of county cricket's major under-achievers since their last domestic triumph, the NatWest Trophy, in 1982.

Arrival of Australian coach Dave Gilbert has brought about a change of attitude evident in their sweep of Glamorgan.

Cricket Week '97 Star Sports spans the globe to provide the latest weekly cricket news in Cricket Week. The programme will feature action backed cricket highlights from Star's line up of English Cricket, Champions Trophy, Pepsi Cricket Council Trophy and the Singer World Series. The compilation of highlights will be coupled with news breaking stories in the cricket community.

British Gran Prix - Silverstone - LIVE - July 13 A switch across to the Arrows camp has put Hill out of reckoning this season, but his fierce will to win adds further excitement to the race which means more to him than any other. Last season Villeneuve scored at Silverstone and would love to step up on the podium again. Standing in his way will be the ever-improving Scot David Coulthard (McLaren), who started so well this season with his commanding victory at Albert Park.
