The Movie Six Degrees of Separation

Friday July 18 at 10:00 pm on Star Movies Stockard Channing, Will Smith and Donald Sutherland star in Six Degrees Of Separation, a film based on one of the most renowned American plays of the past decade. A witty contemporary satire about the vast differences — and surprising similarities — between society's "haves" and "have nots," the film is the story of a savvy black man named Paul (Smith) who works his way into the home of the Klitredges (Channing and Sutherland), a wealthy New York City couple.

The Serial Mystery Movies: Kavanagh Q.C.

Saturday, July 19th at 12:30 on Star Plus Echoes of Bosnia, Florida's "death row", war crimes and medical negligence all test the advocacy of James Kavanagh as John Thaw returns as the leading QC in a new six part series. Against a sometimes conspiratorial atmosphere in chambers, Kavanagh's new cases find him mixing in his society and with London low-life, as he defends a British ambassador's daughter accused of murder, and helps with a rare private prosecution for murder. In Mute Of Malice, Kavanagh defends an Army chaplain who confessed to killing his brother.

In Women On The Verge, Konstadt's manic-depressive behaviour jeopardises her patient's chances of receiving radical treatment for a mental disorder.
Konstadt's erratic behaviour, the result of her decision to end lithium treatments for manic depression, continues to concern Shutt. His worries proved justified when Konstadt addresses the hospital board's bioethics committee about approving a radical surgical procedure for a young patient afflicted with a debilitating form of mental illness. Impatient and seemingly out of control, Konstadt must be escorted from the room by Shutt. The failure of the presentation to clearly define the severity of the illness casts doubt in the minds of board members.

AXA Life (Sunday) League
July 21 7:00 AXA Life League
The Axa Life League carries perhaps the most prestigious trophy in English county cricket.
Each county plays every other county in one day matches with 40 overs per side. The league began Sunday, April 27 and carries a £42,000 purse.
Surrey put 14 years of frustration behind them by capturing the Sunday League title with a convincing seven-wicket win over Glamorgan in the 1996 season's final round. Surrey have been one of county cricket's major underachievers since their last domestic triumph, the NatWest Trophy, in 1982. Arrival of Australian coach Dave Gilbert has brought about a change of attitude evident in their sweep of Glamorgan.

Semi-finals
July 23 4:30 Malaysian Open:
Finals

STAR Sports carries two of the sport's biggest events this month beginning with coverage of the Malaysia Open from Kuala Lumpur, July 22-23.
Indonesia have dominated badminton since the late 1980s with stars such as Susi Susanti and husband Alan Budi Kusuma, Ary Wirinata, Heryanto Arbi, Joko Suprianto and doubles pairing Ricky and Rexy.
However, as China has regained its winning ways the Indonesians are starting to feel the heat. China now boasts the top male and female players in the IBF world rankings.

World number one Dong Jiong has stormed to the top of the men's rankings in ousting Olympic champion Poul-Erik Hoyer-Larsen from top spot to help China regain its badminton supremacy at the recent Sudirman Cup held in Scotland.
Dong, the All-England champion, helped China retain the Dr Sudirman Cup with a 5-0 thrashing of South Korea.
In the women's rankings, All-England champion Ye Zhaoying and Gong Zhichao are sitting one-two in the World Rankings as China has four of the world's top 10 players.

At the Sudirman team championships, Ye felt the wrath of Susanti's years of experience and was beaten by the former Olympic and world champion 11-6-11-11-0.
Susanti, 26, the defending Malaysian Open Women's single champion has been promising to retire for some time and has worthy successor to her crown in fellow countryman Mia Audina.
On home turf Malaysia also looks strong as new coach Morten Frost has helped mark the start of a new era in Malaysian badminton.
