Kuwaiti envoy presents credentials

Newly appointed Ambassador of the State of Kuwait Mohammad Abdullah Al Muhaitab presented his credentials to President Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed at Bangabhaban yesterday, reports UNB.
Welcoming the envoy, President Shahabuddin said relations between the two countries are deeply rooted in common Islamic heritage and culture.
Mohammad Abdullah Al Muhaitab while expressing similar sentiment said the state of Kuwait values her relations with Bangladesh.

Call to unite all nationalist parties

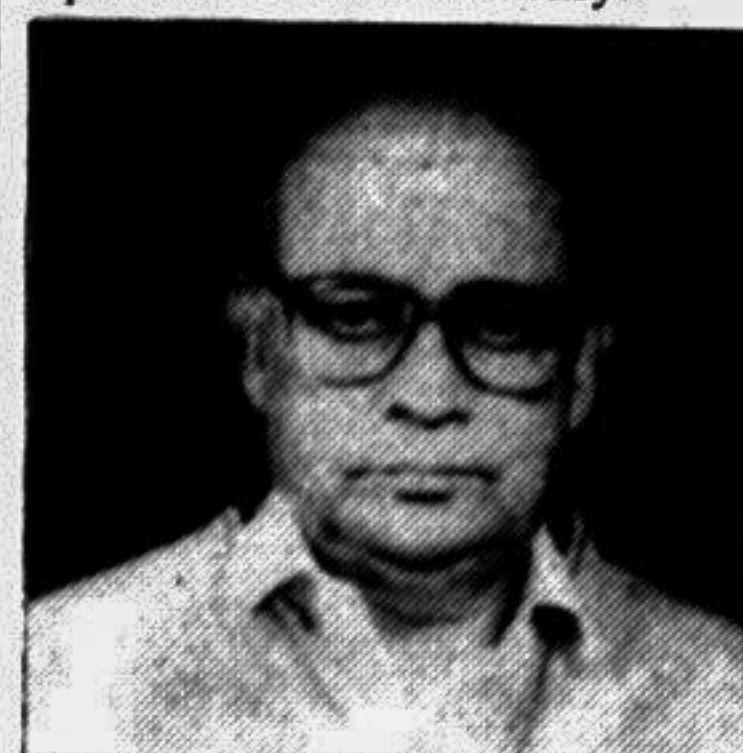

Jatiyatabadi Sangskritik Jote yesterday urged Khaleda Zia to immediately build a political-democratic platform of all small and big nationalist parties and groups and declare political programme in greater national interest, reports UNB.
Terming her as symbol of unity of nationalist forces, the Jote said an uncompromising leadership like Khaleda Zia is need of the hour as a "terrific" situation is prevailing in the country in the question of sovereignty.
They stressed the need for an unconditional political unity of all nationalist forces.

Prof Tarafdar dead

Professor Montazur Rahman Tarafdar of the Dept. of Islamic History and Culture of Dhaka University died of a massive heart attack yesterday. He was 68, says a press release.
Throughout his academic life he was involved in research and writing. He authored numerous articles published in prestigious research journals both at home and abroad. Among his books Hussain Shahi Bengal is widely acclaimed and is going to be reprinted again with revisions done by the author himself. Late Professor Tarafdar was acknowledged internationally as an authority on the cultural history of Bengal during the medieval period. He is survived by his wife, three sons, two daughters, grandchildren and numerous students and admirers.
The department has arranged a condolence meeting at 11:00 am on Wednesday, Aug. 6 in Room No. 2017 of the Arts Building.

Sports Dev Fund lottery draw Aug 23

The draw of the lottery of Sports Development Fund will now be held on August 23 instead of its earlier schedule on August 1, a press release of the national sports council said yesterday night, reports BSS.
The decision was taken at a recent meeting of the lottery conducting committee which also extended the time-limit of sale of tickets up to August 22.
The decision was taken in view of the recent cyclonic storm and the subsequent flash floods in the southern districts of the country.
