

2 terrorists held, revolver recovered

The Detective Branch (DB) of police yesterday arrested two alleged terrorists from Bijoynagar area in the city and recovered a foreign revolver from their possession, reports BSS.

A team of DB police led by Assistant Commissioner (AC) Mohammad Humayun Kabir acting on a tip-off arrested Mohammad Ripon and Mohammad Haroon from a room on the first floor of Aziz Cooperative Market at Bijoynagar and recovered the revolver.

Police said they are allegedly members of a highly organised gang of terrorists and involved in different types of criminal activities in the city for long.

A case was registered with Ramna Police Station in this connection.

Traffic in 4 routes from Sylhet to resume today

Road traffic in four routes from Sylhet will resume today after three days of disruption caused by a clash between two groups of transport workers, reports UNB.

The decision was taken yesterday in a meeting between Sylhet-Dhaka and Habiganj-Shaestaganj Transport Owners' and Workers' Associations at the Sylhet Transport Workers' Union office in Sylhet.

Official sources said the clash occurred between the workers of Dhaka-Sylhet and Sylhet-Habiganj routes near Paltan Bridge in Shaestaganj thana of Habiganj district Thursday night over transportation of passengers on the respective routes.

As a result, road communications in Sylhet-Dhaka, Sylhet-Comilla, Sylhet-Brahmanbaria and Sylhet-Habiganj routes remained snapped since Friday.
