Train to Pakistan

August 15th at 10:00 on Star Plus

It is the summer of 1947. The frontier has become a scene of rioting and bloodshed. But in the village, where Sikhs and Muslims have always lived peacefully together, partition does not mean much. Life is regulated by the trains which rattle across the nearby bridge. Then a local money-lender is murdered. Suspicion falls upon Juggut Singh—the village gangster who, when not in jail, is carrying on a clandestine affair with a Muslim girl. A Western-educated communist agent is also involved. A train comes over the bridge at an unusual time and the villagers discover that it is full of dead Sikhs.
