Razzak, ADB chief exchange views

Finance, cooperation for construction of proposed Ganges barrage sought

Visiting President of the Asian Development Bank (ADB) Mitsuo Sato held a meeting with the Water Resources Minister Abdur Razzak at a hotel in the city yesterday and discussed matters relating to mutual interest, reports BSS.

They discussed on various development aspects of the water management and water resources of Bangladesh. Water Resources Minister briefed the ADB chief about the necessity of the construction of the Ganges Barrage in Bangladesh.

With the construction of the Ganges Barrage the flow of the saline water from the bay would be stopped and the ecological balance and the Sundarban would be protected. Abdur Razzak pointed out and sought the ADB's finance and cooperation for construction and feasibility study of the proposed Ganges Barrage.

In response, the ADB chief showed keen interest to the barrage and appreciated the initiatives of the construction of the Ganges Barrage in Bangladesh. He assured the minister that ADB would send a mission to conduct primary study of the Ganges Barrage.

Razzak also appreciated the ADB chief for financing the 15 projects of water sectors of which nine were completed and six are on-going projects. Three more other projects are being undertaken.

Among others, Water Resources Secretary Dr ATM Shamsul Huda, ERD Secretary Dr Masihur Rahman and alternate executive director of ADB M Faizur Razzak were present.

Razzak also said the barrage is vital from environmental and ecological point of view. He also informed ADB chief about the adverse effect of saline water encroaching into different tributaries in the south-western part of the country from the bay, affecting nearly four crore people including irrigation, environment and the largest mangrove forest, the Sundarbans.

He said, Ganges Barrage is essential for the multipurpose use, specially for the optimal use of Ganges water after signing the long-term Ganges Water Sharing Treaty with India.

President, PM greet Hindu community on Janmastomi

President Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed yesterday conveyed his heart-felt greetings to the members of Hindu community on the eve of 'Janmastomi', the birth anniversary of Lord Sree Krishna, reports BSS.

In a message the President said, Lord Sree Krishna's struggle against injustice and love for the human being will remain as a source of inspiration among the members of Hindu community.

"Lord Sree Krishna's message of love and affection can free the world from grudge and malice and tie the human being into the bond of fraternity and amity," he said.

The President expressed the hope that all irrespective of caste and creed would work together to achieve that goal.

In a separate message Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina has conveyed her best wishes and heartfelt felicitations to the members of the Hindu community on the sacred occasion of the Birthday of Lord Sree Krishna, the exponent of Hinduism, to be celebrated today in the country amid a rejoicing and democratic atmosphere.

In the message on the eve of the holy occasion, the Prime Minister recalled with high admiration that the Lord Krishna was fully devoted to crushing the evils and protecting the good souls and to propagate a religion based on vaishnavism. "Lord Krishna dreamt of a happy, prosperous and united world community blessed with deep sense of love and unanimity," she said.

In another message chairman of Jatiya Party HM Ershad, MP, extended his greetings to the members of the Hindu community on the occasion of the Janmastami festival.

BFUJ, DUJ condemn attack on journalists during yesterday's hartal hours

Leaders of Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists (BFUJ) and Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ) have condemned the police action in front of the Jatiya Press Club in which photo-journalist Habibur Rahman of the Dainik Bangla was critically injured when a tear gas shell hit him in the head during yesterday's hartal hours, reports BSS.

In a joint statement, BFUJ president Iqbal Sobhan Chowdhury and secretary general Abul Kalam Azad and DUJ acting president Shuva Rahman and general secretary Azizul Islam Bhuiyan also strongly criticised the attack on journalists and auto-rickshaws of different newspapers in different parts of the city.

The statement said that the incident took place in front of the Jatiya Press Club when the police suddenly lobbed tear gas shells without any provocation. It also demanded stern action against those police personnel responsible for the incident.

Condemning the attack on journalists and the auto rickshaws of newspapers by pro-hartal activists, the journalists' leaders demanded tolerance from all so that the media people can perform their professional duties properly without any intimidations. They also called upon both the government and the opposition to avoid any confrontation in the name of political programmes in the interest of democracy.

DRU

Dhaka Reporters Unity (DRU) has expressed deep concern over the rupture of security of the journalists in the city during opposition-sponsored hartal yesterday.

In a statement, DRU president Shaiful Kabir and general secretary Mostafa Firoz deplored the lobbing of a tear-gas canister by police on photo journalist of Dainik Bangla Habibur Rahman Habib and assault on Pavel Rahman by 'terrorists'.

They also condemned the "day-long rampage by outraged terrorists" at the Jatiya Press Club and attacks on journalists during the hartal hours.

The DRU leaders requested police and press club authorities to take measures to ensure security of reporters and photo journalists.

They also demanded legal action against the persons responsible for unruly behaviour in the press club premises.

BPJA, BPJF

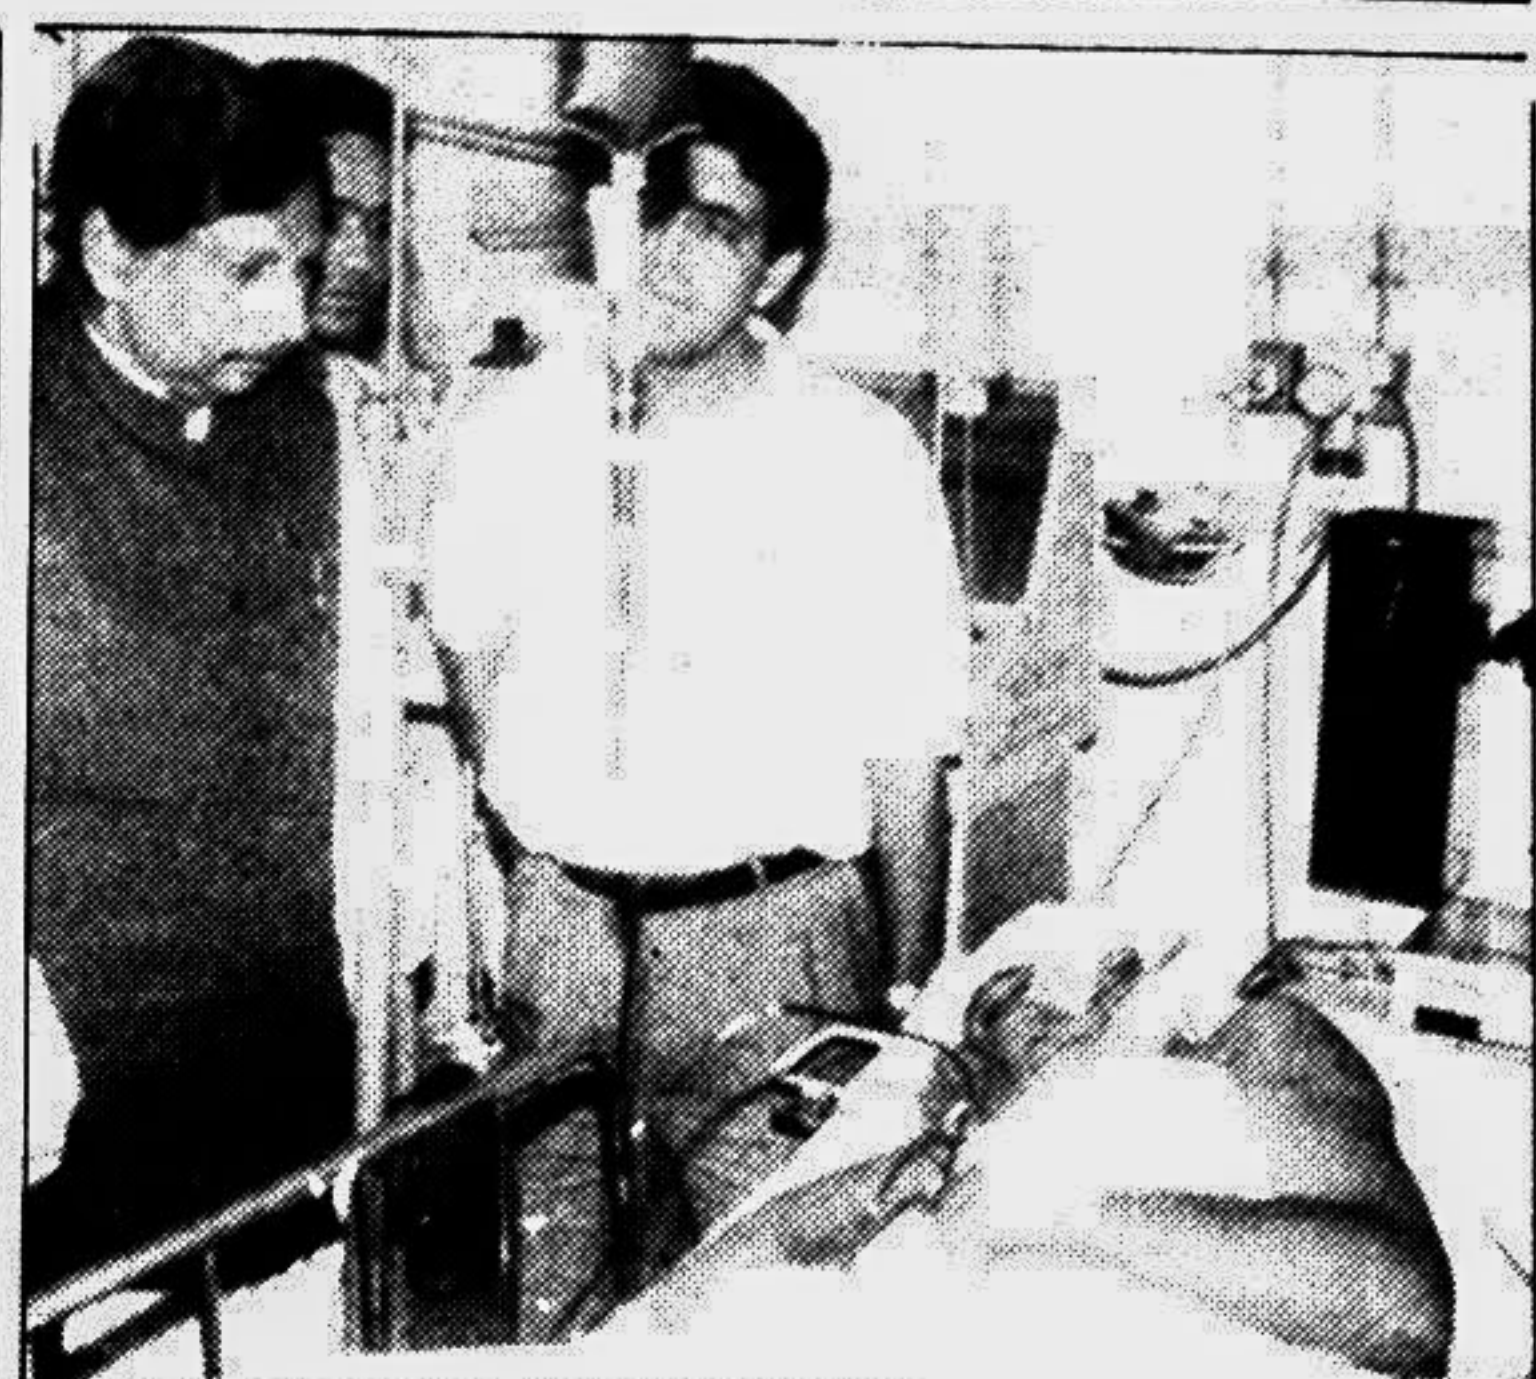

By Staff Correspondent

In separate press statements, leaders of the Association and the Forum called upon the government to take all out measures to ensure full treatment of the injured photographer.

Photo Journalists' Association President and Acting General Secretary Md Salah Uddin and Asaduzzaman Asad respectively urged the government to ensure that the police does not repress any journalist in the future.

They said that such police atrocity was nothing new and demanded exemplary punishment of the policemen involved in the attack.
