Janmastomi observed in Chittagong

CHITTAGONG, Aug 25: The members of the Hindu community here today celebrated one of their greatest religious festivals Janmastomi, the birth day of Lord Sree Krishna, through traditional enthusiasm and solemn devotion, reports BSS.

To mark the occasion, a five-day festival under the auspices of Janmastomi celebration council began at JM Sen Hall here on Saturday.

On the third day of the festival today thousands of devotees from all walks of life thronged on the JM Sen Hall premises to offer their prayers.

The Janmastomi mahapuja of Lord Sree Krishna, the incarnation of Lord Vishnu was held at JM Sen Hall tonight.

Other programmes of the festival included, rendering of padabali kirtan, recitation from the holy Gita, discussion on the life and activities of Lord Krishna, staging processions, cultural functions and dramas on the life of Sree Krishna.

To mark the occasion, Bangladesh Television, Chittagong regional centre telecast a special programme in the evening, while local dailies published a number of articles highlighting the importance of the festival.

LDF protests hike in fuel price

The Left Democratic Front (LDF) yesterday reiterated its demand to reduce the price of petroleum considering the sufferings of the common people, reports UNB.

It made the demand at a meeting at the Jatiya Press Club, organised to protest the price hike of gasoline and frequent loadshedding in the country.

LDF Convenor Morshed Ali and Abul Hossain addressed the meeting. Front leaders Rashed Khan Menon, Mujahidul Islam Selim, Abdullah Sarkar, AFM Mahbubul Haq, Dilip Barua and Bimal Biswas were, among others, were present.

The LDF leaders criticised the government for raising the price of fuel bypassing the parliament. It has become a tradition for our governments to take important decisions sidetracking the parliament, they said.
