Woman murdered in Demra
By Staff Correspondent
A 60-year-old woman was murdered at Shampur under Demra thana in the city Wednesday. The dead was identified as Binapani Roy Chowdhury, wife of Shubeshwar Roy. According to police, some unidentified persons stabbed her indiscriminately at her house at Shampur in the early hours of Wednesday. She died at the Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) in the morning. Hospital sources said the victim sustained injuries in the head. Quoting Binapani's son, police said the woman slept on the verandah of her Shampur residence that night. At about 3 am, on hearing the sound of screams, Binapani's son and his wife tried to come out of the room, but found the door was locked from outside. They broke open the door, only to find his mother lying in a pool of blood. Turkish envoy calls on Faezul

A large quantity of relief goods were distributed by the Rangamati unit of the Bangladesh Red Crescent Society among the victims of recent flash flood in the district, reports BSS. According to a press release, 7.5 tons of rice, 1.25 tons of pulses and one ton of dates were distributed on Wednesday among 250 families affected by recent flash flood and other calamities in different thanas of the district. The press release said, 30 kg of rice, 5 kg of pulses and four kg of dates were given to each family. The recipients included 130 families from Rangamati municipal area and forty families each from Baghaichhari, Kaptai and Kauhkhali thanas. Rejoinder
By Staff Correspondent
In response to a news item published in The Daily Star on August 18, 1997, Sunny Trading Agency Private Limited claiming itself as the local representative of German firm Karl Storz has issued the following rejoinder. In the news item headlined "Endoscopy machines at DMCH out of order" it was said that Karl Storz did not have any representative in Bangladesh and that is why they could not repair the broken image fibre of the endoscopy device now lying out of order at Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH). The report was not true, the rejoinder said. The report was based on a statement given to The Daily Star correspondent by Dr Mian Mashhud Ahmad, In-Charge, Gastroenterology department of DMCH. When contacted Wednesday, Dr Ahmad said the agent of Karl Storz could not provide maintenance service. He, however, stuck to his point that the German manufactured device was not "user-friendly".
