

West Jatrabari Div II chess champs

Sports Reporter West Jatrabari Kira Chakra emerged unbeaten champion in the Second Division chess league which concluded at the NSC chess room last night.

On the final day of the seven-round Swiss League meet, West Jatrabari outplayed Lalbagh Kishore Sangha by four points to nil and moved one and a half points clear of Sonali Bank in the 22-team table with 22 points.

Sonali Bank, who had a slim half a point lead over the champions at the end of the penultimate round on Monday, failed to maintain their position as they were held to a 2-2 draw in the final round. Sonali Bank finished with 20.5 points.

Both teams have also been promoted to the First Division League from next year.

Final standing: 22 points — West Jatrabari KC, 20.5 points — Sonali Bank 17.5 points — Jatrabari KC 16.5 points — Dhaka Chess Club, 16 points — Rajshahi Daba Club, 15.5 points — Uttara Chess Club and BUET.

Inter-div women's v'ball starts

Sports Reporter Khulna got off to a flying start in the inter-division women's volleyball championship which began at the NSC wooden-floor gymnasium in the city yesterday under the auspices of Bangladesh Women Sports Federation.

On the inaugural day of the three-day meet, Khulna won both of their matches against Dinajpur and Barisal.

In their first engagement, the Khulna girls trounced Dinajpur 15-2, 15-2, 15-3 and then tamed Barisal 15-2, 15-5, 15-0.

In the other matches of the day, Patuakhali beat neighbours Barisal 15-8, 15-13, 15-5 while Pabna handed Rajbari a 5-11, 15-6, 15-5 defeat.

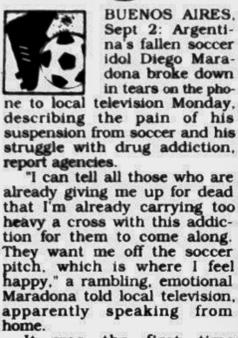

Earlier, State Minister for Youth and Sports Obaidul Quader declared the meet open in a ceremony. In all eight districts — Khulna, Pabna, Patuakhali, Barisal, Dinajpur, Rajbari, Narayanganj and Comilla — are participating in the tourney scheduled to end tomorrow.

Kluivert gets green light

AMSTEDAM, Sept 2: Controversial Dutch soccer star Patrick Kluivert will play in Saturday's World Cup qualifying match between the Netherlands and Belgium. Dutch television reported Monday, says AP.

The selection of the Dutch international and AC Milan soccer star was in serious doubts due to allegations earlier this year that he and three friends had raped a woman after picking her up outside a nightclub in Amsterdam.

they planted this on Maradona, they planted that on Maradona. Argentine soccer authorities announced last Thursday that Maradona had tested positive to banned substances after his arrest in Buenos Aires.

Maradona said he had taken drugs. He said he was the victim of a witch-hunt by people who "want to give me a revolver so that I kill myself."

Maradona has served suspensions totalling 30 months after twice testing positive for drugs. Some people may break their hands applauding what's happened to me," he said. "As far as I'm concerned, all these special programmes and talk of the fall of a great are disgusting. It's time to stop all this."

Maradona's public fall from grace began when he tested positive for cocaine in 1991 when playing for Napoli. He received a second ban after performance-enhancing drugs were found in his urine at the 1994 World Cup in the United States.

first league match of the new season for Boca Juniors in his fifth career comeback.

Boca's club president Mauricio Macri said he had been told the substance found in the 36-year-old midfielder's urine was cocaine. But Argentine television quoted judicial sources Monday that Maradona tested positive not for cocaine but for three other still unidentified chemicals.

Maradona sobbed uncontrollably over the phone and described how he had wept with his wife and two daughters when his latest scandal broke out. He lashed out at the enormous media attention focused on his and said that journalists forgot that drug addiction brought suffering.

Maradona said the television coverage of the affair was "disgusting" and was damaging to his young daughters.

But Maradona did not comment on whether he had taken drugs.

He said he was the victim of a witch-hunt by people who "want to give me a revolver so that I kill myself."

Americans save face

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, Sept 2: Russia had gymnastics glory in their sights Monday night after their women saved the head of the start.

The Russians scored 153.301 points in their qualifying round to edge the talented Chinese into second spot.

The Chinese, looking for their first team title, excelled on the asymmetric bars with a string of tens, but, unusually, they were less happy on the balance beam.

In the end they scored 152.045 points to see of strong competition from Romania, the reigning champions, who notched up 151.469 points.

Ukraine were a distant fourth, ahead of a mediocre US squad which contains just one of its Atlanta Olympic champions in Dominique Moceanu.

Nonetheless, the Americans secured, along with France, a final qualifying place to avert humiliation. Ukraine found themselves reduced to a skeleton team of just four gymnasts instead of six after Olympic champion Lilia Podkopaeva and Viktoria Karpenko pulled out.

Podkopaeva sprained her ankle trying a horse vault in training while Karpenko fractured two fingers while exercising on the balance beam.

Team officials had vainly hoped right up until the last moment they would both be fit for competition.

With just four competitors remaining, Ukraine, who placed fifth at Atlanta last summer and two years ago in Sabae, Japan, will have their work cut out to make a strong impression this time.

As the four best marks are taken into account, the whole quartet will have to perform well.

The loss of Podkopaeva could open the door to a triumph by elegant Russian Svetlana Khorkina, who was top of the individual standings and is well-placed to garner the individual title.

Romania also has hopes of obtaining individual glory through Gina Gogean, who excelled in both the floor exercises and on the balance beam.

The chief absentee at the championships is Vitaly Shcherbo of Belarus, who won six gold medals at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona but who decided not to attend.

Liberian sports boss blasts

MONROVIA, Sept 2: Liberia's sports minister blasted his country's national soccer side on Monday and pledged to build a more patriotic squad after poor showings in World Cup and African Nations Cup qualifying matches, reports Reuters.

The players, except for the notable performance of (AC Milan striker) George Weah, were faceless and uncommitted in the two competitions," said Francisco Massaquoi.

He said a new squad would now be built on merit and patriotism.

Tommi wins in Finland

Sunday's closing leg of the 1997 rally of Finland saw Tommi Makinen dominate on the stages close to his home town.

Amid dramas from the chasing pack, the Finn swept to victory to notch up his fourth consecutive win in Finland and extend his lead in the FIA World Rally Championship for drivers.

Despite retirements by Colin McRae and Kenneth Eriksson, the 555 Subaru team had an unassailable lead in the Manufacturers' Championship and have maintained their position in the number one slot.

The Finns — who notoriously out-pace the non-Scandinavian crews on this rally — upheld local pride and filled the top four positions, with Ford driver, Juha Kankkunen in 2nd position and Jarmo Kytölehto 3rd. Starting the final day from 3rd place, Kankkunen set a fast pace and benefited from Sainz's problems early in the morning to elevate himself to 2nd. But, despite closing to within 9 seconds of Makinen, the four-time World Champion was simply outpaced by the Mitsubishi driver. Ford teammate, Carlos Sainz, put in an impressive performance in the Escort and was within 3 seconds of Makinen after the first stage. However, a string of mechanical problems dropped the Spaniard down to fourth overall, before his ultimate retirement from transmission failure two stages before the finish.

The rate of attrition at the top of the leaderboard on the final day was staggering, with Marcus Gronholm — debuting the new Toyota Corolla World Rally Car in the series — also retiring while lying 3rd overall. The unlucky Finn stopped on the road section prior to the last two stages, with an apparent lack of fuel.
