Ruling party lawmakers yesterday vented their anguish over the ghost billing, corruption and inefficiency of T&T men and non-implementation of government commitments in their constituencies, reports

During a 'Meet-the-MPs' programme of Post and Telecommunications Minister Mohammad Nasim, Awami League MPs from Dhaka, Chittagong and Rajshahi divisions narrated the miserable condition of telephone system in their areas and called for an early remedy.

They also expressed their dissatisfaction over the nonimplementation of commitments given by the post and telecommunications minister and also by themselves in their respective constituencies.

Energy and Mineral Resources Minister Lt Gen (Retd) Noor Uddin Khan, State Minister for Health Dr Amanullah, Abdul Mannan MP, Advocate Rahmat Ali MP and other senior party leaders and MPs were among those who apprised the minister of their problems.

Nasim gave some instant instruction to concerned authorities for taking immediate steps to resolve the problems. The programme began at 10:30 am and continued till 3 pm at the conference room of the Housing and Public Works Ministry. Almost all the MPs from the three divisions alleged that the commitments given by the ministry were not implemented in last one year.

Raising the issue of ghost billing, they told the minister that suffering of commonmen is easily understood when MPs fall victims to ghost billing.

Harun-or-Rashid MP (Laxmipur) said since his election he had received more than three letters from T&T Board.

BCL protests killing of CU student

Pro-Awami League Chhatra League yesterday brought out a procession on the campus and held a rally in front of DUCSU Bhaban, protesting the killing of a student in Chittagong University, reports UNB.

BCL leaders blamed Jamaatbacked Chhatra Shibir for the killing and demanded immediate arrest and exemplary punishment to those responsible BCL president Enamul Haq Shamim and general secretary Ishaq Ali Khan Panna and its leaders Bahadur Bepari and Abdul Wadud Khokon addressed the rally.

They called for united movement to resist the fundamentalist forces.

Sammilito Nari Samaj submits memo to Speaker

By Staff Correspondent Leaders of the Sammilito Nari Samaj (SNS) yesterday said that the government should evoke the opinion of Nari Samaj before passing the proposed Women and Children Repression Act, 1997.

The Nari Samaj leaders met Speaker Humayun Rasheed Chowdhury and submitted a memorandum with a set of demands on behalf on the womenfolk of the country.

Sultana Aktar Rubi, Dr Laila Khan, Maleka Begum, Shahin Anam, Khorshed Alam, Badrunnessa Khuku and Natasha Ahmed of SNS were present.

They demanded that the reports of the judicial committee on Kalpana Chakma, Yasmeen and Shima Chowdhury be made public.

Strict implementation of the existing laws to prevent women repression was also demanded in the memorandum. They further urged the government to take steps to try war criminals and the people who violated women in special tribunals.

Proper steps should be taken to prevent the rise of fundamentalists and the fatwabazi should be banned, the SNS leaders demanded. They also called for strict measures for preventing women repression and childlifting.

They said that reserved seats in the parliament for women should be increased and direct elections should be held to those posts. They also pressed for passing a Unified Family Code.

US envoy calls on energy minister

The US Ambassador to Bangladesh John C Holzman yesterday called on Energy and Mineral Resources Minister Lieutenant General (Retd) Muhammad Noor Uddin Khan at his office at the Bangladesh Secretariat, reports BSS.

The US Ambassador showed keen interest in the prospect of US investment in Bangladesh and expressed hope that the existing economic ties between the two countries would be strengthened further in the days ahead.

Envoys of Russia, Germany meet FM

Russian Ambassador to Bangladesh E Ugeniy P Ivanov and German Ambassador Bruno Weber separately called on Foreign Minister Abdus Samad Azad at his office, reports UNB.

During the meetings, they discussed matters relating to mutual interests.
