SUBSCRIBERS...

We apologize for your difficulties in using our Phones. Our network is experiencing some temporary difficulties and congestion due to insufficient channels into the T&T network.

About 40 base stations are now in operation in Dhaka. Our specialists are working on co-ordination of those base stations and their tuning works. A solution is expected soon.

Shortage of channels between GrameenPhone and T&T creates jam in call traffic. GrameenPhone and T&T are working closely together. The shortage of channels are expected to be overcome shortly.

GP 1000 was introduced in response to your demand for a low cost package. We sold them for a week only and stopped selling them to take care of our existing subscribers.

We request for your cooperation and understanding to be able to deliver the quality service we are determined to provide. As always, we listen to your needs.
