Special photo album on Bangabandhu launched

He is not a mere individual. He is an institution. A movement. A revolution. An upsurge. He is the architect of the nation. He is the essence of epic poetry and he is history, reports UNB.

Prefaced with these words, a special album on Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman was launched in the city yesterday.

Executive editor and designer of the album, artist Hasem Khan, formally handed it over to Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at Ganobhaban in the evening.

The album, a compilation of some 260 photographs on Bangabandhu covering almost all the important occasions of his life, also contains his sketches, some memorable comments and three drawings of him by Hasem Khan.

Photographs on political and working life of Mujib, including some rare ones, are placed in the album to project the real life of the Father of the Nation, Hasem Khan told the media after the function.

Receiving the album, Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina thanked the members of the editorial board for presenting the nation with a rare and exceptional collection.

"The new generation will be able to know about the life of father of the nation from this album," she said.

Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Memorial Trust has published the album, printed by the BRAC Printers.

The members of the editorial board of the album are: Sheikh Hasina, Sheikh Rehana, Gazul Huq, AK Azad Chowdhury, AASM Arefin Siddique, Baby Moudud and Mohammad Rezaul Karim Reza.

The album acknowledged SA Maleq, Syed Badrul Ahsan, Subrata Barua, Nurul Islam Islam, Shamsuddin Ahmed.

Farid Hossain, Md Yaqub, Gollam Mowla, Mozammel Hossain, Mohammad Musa, Lutfur Rahman, Rashid Talukdar, Aftab Ahmed, Zahirul Huq, Anwar Hossain, Kishore Parekh, Pavel Rahman and other photographers.

Sheikh Rehana, Dhaka University Vice-Chancellor Prof AK Azad Chowdhury, Dr AASM Arefin Siddique, Subrata Barua, Mozammel Hossain and Farid Hossain, among others, were present.
