CEC exchanges views with CCHRB delegation

Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) has emphasised on strengthening the electoral process on the basis of opinions from all concerned for the sake of democracy in the country.

An Election Commission (EC) press release said the CEC was exchanging views with a delegation of the Coordination Council of Human Rights in Bangladesh (CCHRB) while receiving a report on the Manikganj-3 bypolls.

The secretary general of the CCHRB also submitted a recommendation report to the CEC on modernising the electoral process.

Mohammad Abu Hena said the EC was determined to hold the Union Parishad (UP) polls, scheduled for December, in a free, fair and peaceful manner. He appealed to all concerned to help the EC conduct the Union Parishad polls.

CHTDB executing Tk 110cr development projects

CHITTAGONG, Sept 23: Chittagong Hill Tracts (CHT) has been witnessing an era of development with six special development projects being executed in the region with an estimated cost of Taka 110 crore by Chittagong Hill Tracts Development Board (CHTDB) in collaboration with UNICEF and other agencies.

CHTDB sources told BSS, that the projects, taken in 1993 and to be completed by the year 2000 have been designed with the main objective to improve the socio-economic conditions of people of the regions through ensuring basic services like health, education, sanitation, safe water, income generating project and development of communication networks.

Of the six special projects, a Taka 34.4 crore multi-sectoral community development project is being implemented in 25 thanas of Rangamati, Bandarban and Khagrachhari districts to ensure basic services to some five lakh tribal families in the hilly remote areas.

The first phase of the project, which began in January 1996, has already been completed and its second phase is progressing fast, the sources said.

The second phase of upland settlement project for the rehabilitation of some 1000 tribals and non-tribal families with a cost of Taka 29.32 crore began in January 1993 in Bandarban and Khagrachhari districts, is also progressing fast, the sources said.

As part of the six projects, a Taka 29.72 crore for rehabilitation of some 1,500 destitute women and their families in the three hill districts will begin in December next.

Meanwhile, a Taka eight crore special road development project has already been completed in Khagrachhari district.

The works on the project which began in June '94 was completed in June this year, the sources said.

Another project at a cost of Taka eight crore for infrastructural development of the road communication network in Bandarban began in March last.

The CHTDB was set up in 1976 to accelerate the development efforts has now emerged as a major agency for coordination, monitoring and implementation of the development projects in the CHT regions as the present government has accorded the highest priority to the economic and social development of the regions.

Dogachi Bridge on Dhaka-Maowa highway opens

Communications Minister Anwar Hossain yesterday opened the Dogachi Bridge on Dhaka-Maowa highway for traffic, reports UNB.

The 160-feet long and 24-feet wide bridge was built at a cost of Tk 91.50 lakh in Munshiganj district.

It took 15 months to construct the two-lane bridge which would help speedy movement of vehicles on the highway.

Nari Samaj meet held

The Sammito Nari Samaj, a women activists group, at a meeting yesterday called for bringing charges against the officials who investigated the Sheema 'murder' case, a press release said.

The speakers at the meeting, held at Dhaka University's TSC, urged all conscious women of the society to unitedly resist repression on women across the country. They further said, they would fight for a democratic state by resisting terrorism sponsored by the present government.

Among others, Advocate Sigma Huda, Shirin Akhter, Sultana Akhter Ruby and Tahmina Bari addressed the meeting.

Woman violated

A 22-year-old woman was allegedly violated by a group of youths at Kamrangir Char under Lalbagh thana in the city Sunday night.

Police said about four hoodlums abducted her from near Beribadh when she was returning home from her relative's house at about 10:30 pm.

They forcibly took her to nearby Sahidnagar area and raped her repeatedly inside a boat. Police arrested three persons in this connection till last night.

A case was filed with Lalbagh thana under the Women and Children Repression Act 1995 accusing four persons.
