Sammilita Nari Samaj renews demand for withdrawal of

Ershad's remarks

Sammilita Nari Samaj, an umbrella organisation of women's bodies has renewed its demand for withdrawal of "indecorous remarks" made by Jatiya Party President H M Ershad on female leadership, reports UNB.

In a statement yesterday. Nari Samaj said that their repeated appeals to the deposed President to refrain from making "audacious comments" about women fell on the deaf ears.

The woman community cannot expect decent remarks about female leadership from a political personality like Ershad, the statement said.

Referring to his recent comments that a woman leader cannot get into water during flood, the statement said it's baseless and such showmanship cannot assuage the sufferings of flood victims.

Call to make token strike in newspapers on Oct 12 success

A rally of the journalists held at The Bangladesh Times yesterday called upon the government to take stern measures including establishment of special court to compel the newspaper owners to implement the Fifth Wage Board Award which is mandatory as per law of the land, reports BSS.

The meeting was held as part of the ten-day programmes of Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ) to press home its various demands including full implementation of the wage board awards, payment of arrear salaries and halting of repression on journalists including termination.

The rally called upon the journalists community to make the three-hour token strike on October 12 from 10 am to 1 pm in all newspapers and news agencies in the country a success and urged all to attend the central rally of the journalists to be held the same day at the National Press Club premises.
