Guardians urge authorities not to hold SSC exams before May

Guardians of the SSC examinees Thursday urged the authorities not to hold next year's Secondary School Certificate (SSC) examinations before May, reports UNB.

Expressing concern over the situation in last few days for confusion and anger among the SSC candidates, they also pleaded for holding examination of one paper in a day with intervals.

Jatiya Abhibhabak Forum, a newly floated platform of the guardians, told a press conference at Jatiya Press Club that "innocent" students came to the streets as Board authorities did not contradict reports on holding the SSC examinations in a week.

It said the SSC candidates did not get enough time to study as per their new curriculum as text books reached them six months after they were promoted to class IX in 1996.

Moreover, a circular from the Education Board was sent to the schools recently instructing completion of test examinations by November instead of December.

The school authorities also hinted that test examination of two papers would be held in a day to prepare the students for their first public examination.

"That is why, students apprehended that SSC examinations would be held in February," said convenor of the forum Mohammad Abdur Razzak.

He blamed the Board authorities for "untimely and illogical decision" which often misguide the students.

The press conference was attended, among others, by Mahbubul Alam, Dr Anwar Hossain, Firoza Akhter and Hosna Yasmin.
