USOC-Seiko strike deal

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct 10: Olympic organisers announced Thursday that Seiko Corp will supply all timing and scoring devices for the 2002 Winter Games here in exchange for marketing rights to the Games, reports AP.

The value of the equipment and up to 300 employees that Japanese-based Seiko will bring in to run it is estimated at 30 million dollars, said David Johnson, vice-president of operations for the Salt Lake Organising Committee.

That represents about 10 per cent of the in-kind contributions organisers expect to line up before the Games, he said.

In exchange, Seiko gets the right to sell clocks and watches bearing the US Olympic Committee and SIOC trademarks through the 2002 Winter Games in the United States.

The USOC and SIOC will get licensing revenue from Seiko, but that amount has not yet been estimated.

Seiko first began supplying equipment for Olympics in Tokyo in 1964. Since then, it has timed the Sapporo, Barcelona and Lillehammer Games, and will time the Winter Olympics in Nagano, Japan, in February.

Europe's day of reckoning

LONDON, Oct 10 (AP) : Tension in Rome. Joy or dismay in Athens. Delirium in Vienna and Glasgow.

Six more European nations will advance to next year's world Cup in France Saturday when the final 22 qualifying round matches spark celebrations for the winners and sorrow for those who don't make it.

And the agony of waiting for the unknown as eight teams head for playoffs.

Germany, the Netherlands, Austria and Scotland are almost there. England and Italy fight it out in Rome in the stand-out match of the day while Ireland and Yugoslavia will have to sweat through the playoffs of eight runners-up.

Greece can qualify for the second time in a row by beating Denmark in Athens and finishing top of Group A. But a loss or even a tie with the Danes likely will mean elimination because Croatia can relegate it to third by beating Slovenia.

Four nations, Romania, Norway, Bulgaria and Spain already join host nation France in the 32-team finals next July.

Outside of Europe, five African nations — South Africa, Nigeria, Cameroon, Tunisia and Morocco — have qualified while Argentina, Colombia and Paraguay join defending titlists Brazil from South America.

The Italy-England confrontation in Rome's Olympic Stadium has so much riding on it.

Although the loser could still get through via the playoffs, neither team wants to rely on the back door route to France '98.

Italy were runners-up at the last World Cup in 1994 and England want the world to know they are back as a major contender after failing to qualify four years ago.

The English need only a point from the games while the Italians are in a must-win situation and badly need an early goal to stop their 70,000 fans turning against them.

England coach Glenn Hoddle believes his team has become tough to beat away from home instead of a pushover.

Denmark have a three-point advantage in Athens but can be caught on goal difference even if they lose 1-0 and will then have to qualify through the playoffs.

Michael Laudrup is a doubtful starter for the Danes in Athens because of a sore Achilles' heel and coach Bo Johansson has made a late call up in Middlesbrough's Mikkel Beck.

Greek coach Costas Poykiou has a full-strength team but also the problem of reducing his players' pre-game anxiety.

Croatia, a point behind the Greeks, can finish second at best and are bemoaning the two

Courier in last eight

SINGAPORE, Oct 10: Former world number one Jim Courier stayed on course for a second successive title, moving into the quarterfinals of the Singapore Open on Thursday with a 6-4, 7-6 win over unseeded Australian Michael Tebbut, reports Reuter.

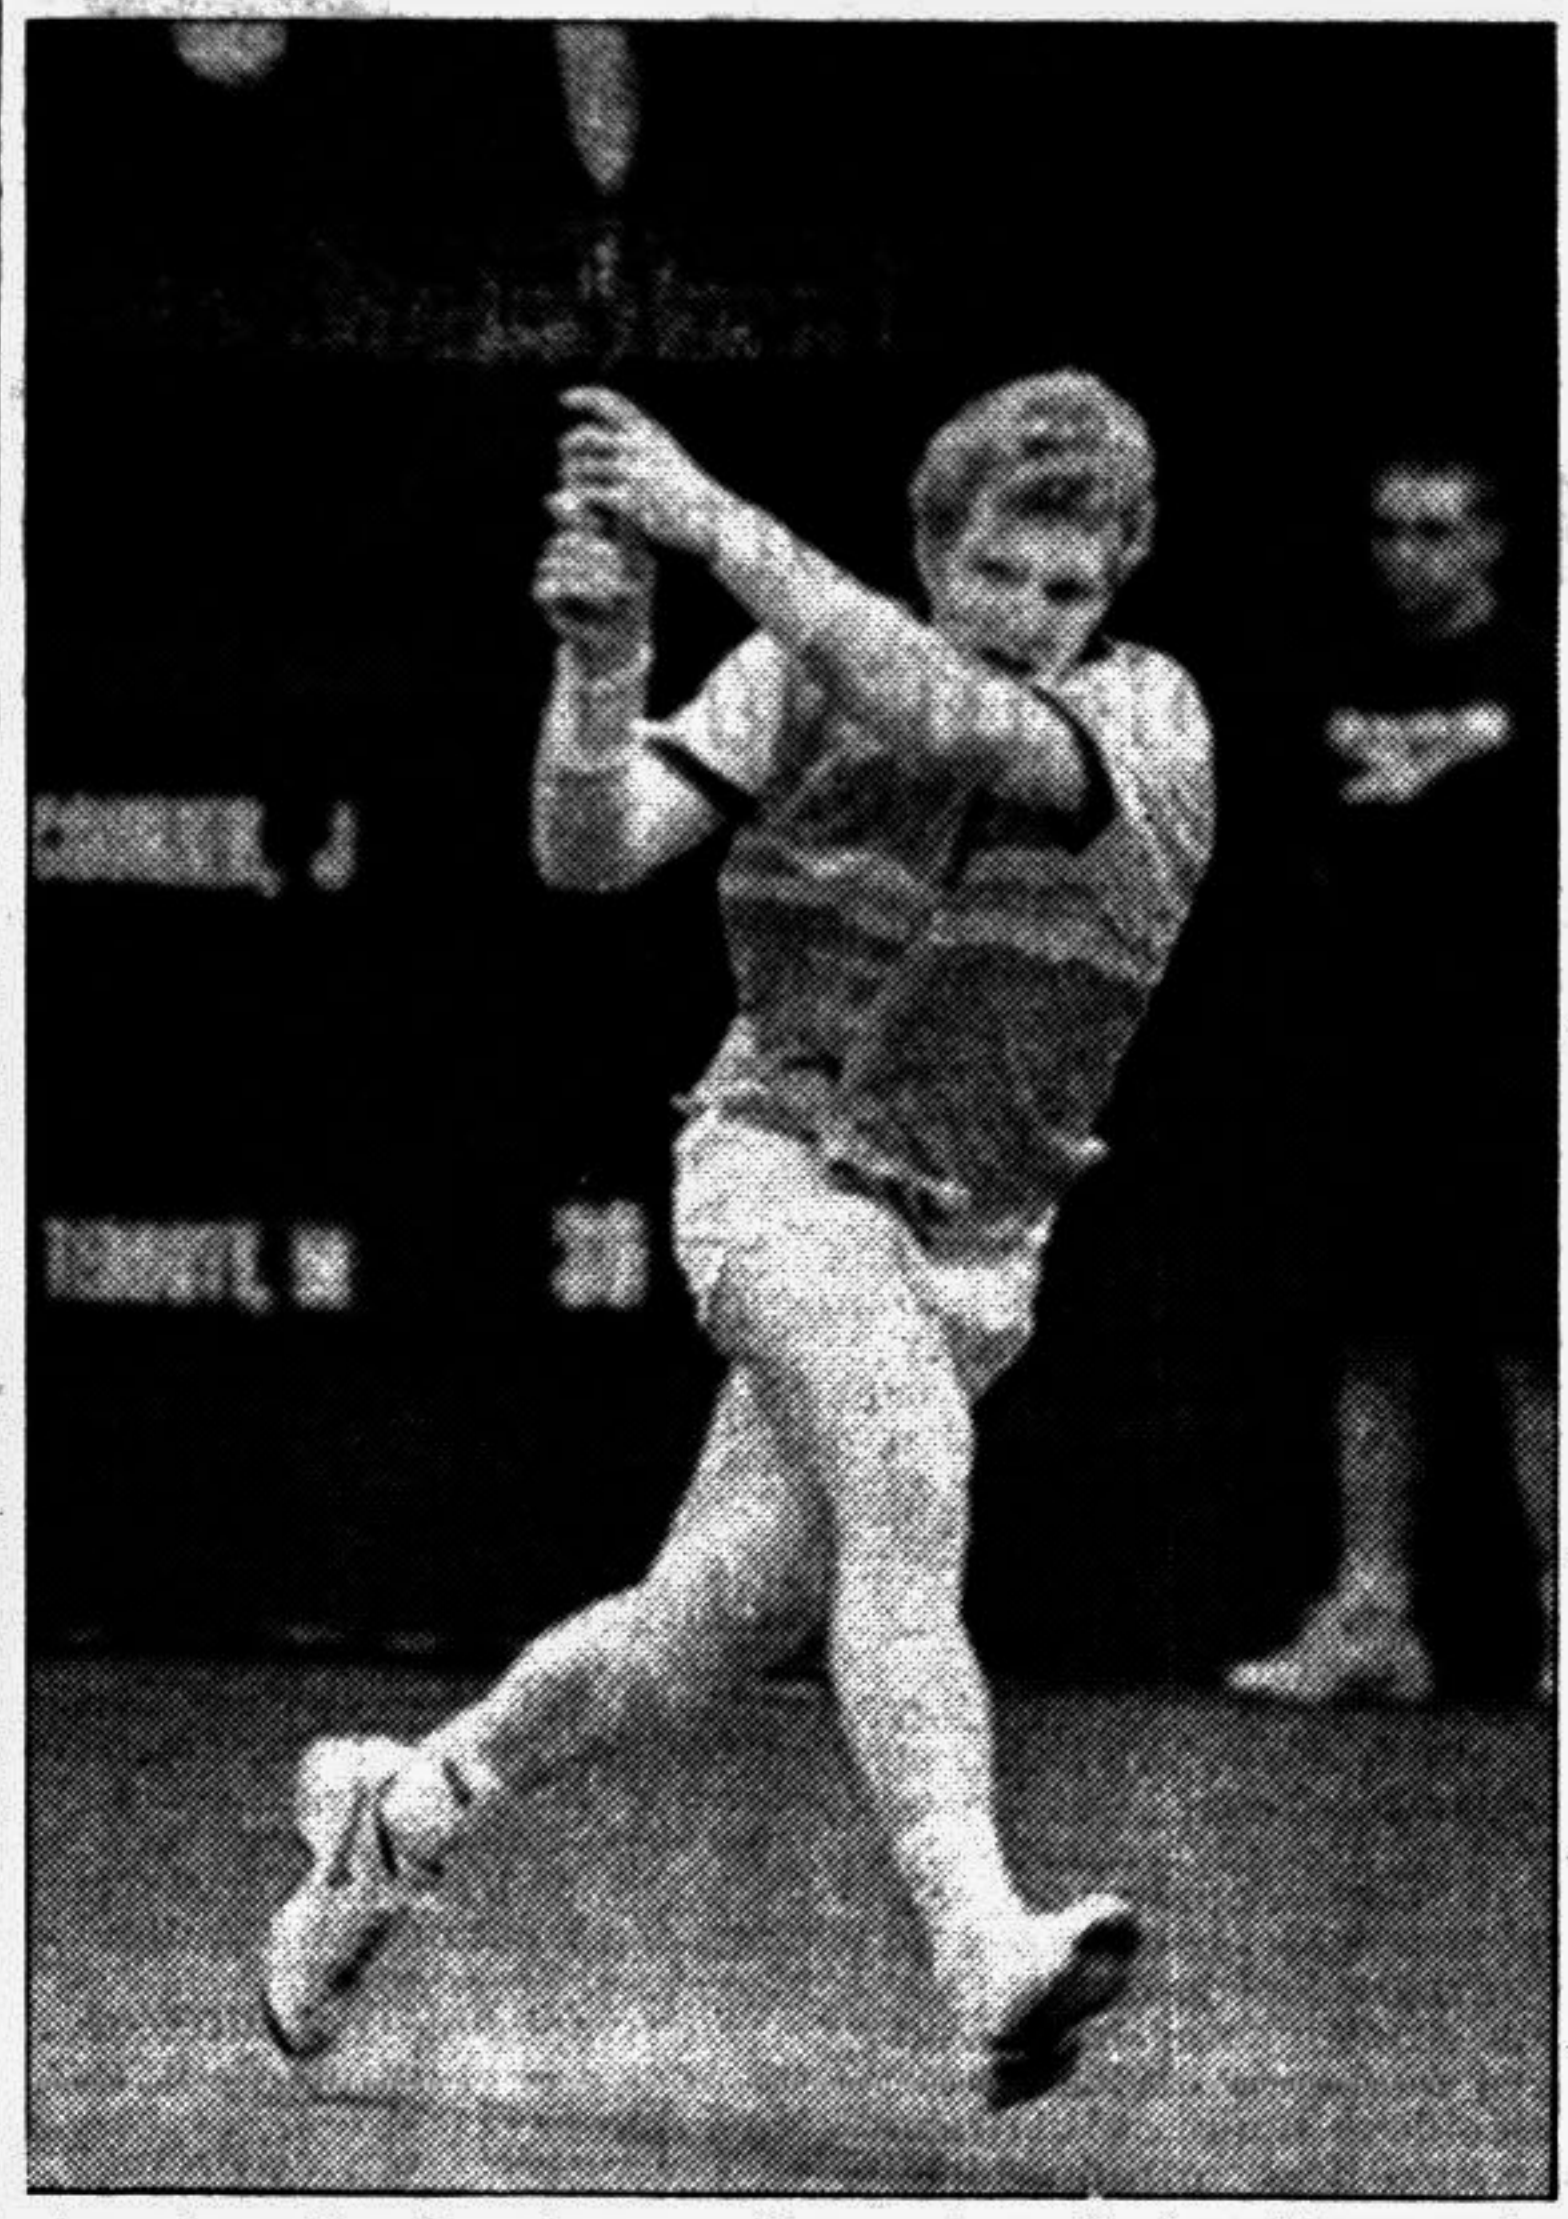

Courier's victory in a match of fierce hitting set up a clash with Swede Thomas Johansson whom he beat in the semifinals of the Beijing Open last week on his way to the title.

The fifth seeded Swede beat South Africa's Marcos Ondruska 6-4, 6-4.

Tebbutt made third seed Courier work hard for every point and blamed lapses of concentration for his defeat.

"I took my mind off the game for a while and was made to regret it," he said.

Defending champion Jonathan Stark, the big server who ousted Michael Chang in the first round in a repeat of last year's final, had a tough ride against Slovak Jiri Novak before winning 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

Warne delays decision

MELBOURNE, Oct 10: Australian leg-spinner Shane Warne said Friday he was still at least two weeks from deciding which English cricket county he would play for next year, reports AP.

There was speculation Warne would make a decision as early as this weekend but the Victorian state player said he was still considering his options.

Three counties are leading the chase for the 28-year-old with Nottinghamshire tipped to win his services ahead of Sussex and Northamptonshire.

Meanwhile, Warne's state and Australian teammate Paul Reiffel confirmed he would also play county cricket next year but, like Warne, had not decided on his preferred county.

Warne is believed to want to play for a county whose home is one of England's six Test venues which gives Nottinghamshire the edge as its home ground is Trent Bridge.

Warne, speaking at the launch of Victoria's cricket season, said he had hoped to have made his decision by now but was still considering several factors.

"It's been dragging out a bit and I want to get it sorted out myself but there's a few things I still have to determine," he said.

"I am studying each side and going through what grounds the play at and what facilities they have got."

Reiffel has been tipped to play for Hampshire, replacing Queensland batsman Matthew Hayden as its overseas player.

"I've had a couple of good offers and I would say I probably will be playing county cricket next year," Reiffel said.

Muster sent packing

VIENNA, Oct 10: Unseeded American Todd Martin sent local hero Thomas Muster tumbling out of the CA-Trophy on Thursday leaving Goran Ivanisevic and Greg Rusedski as the only remaining seeds in the quarterfinals, reports Reuter.

The sixth-seeded Muster, who dropped out of the world's top 10 last month, is still receiving treatment for a hip muscle strain sustained in training last weekend and went down 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

Ivanisevic, the third seed, crushed past American Chris Woodruff 6-4, 7-6 (7-4) while Rusedski, the fourth, turned on the power to blast Swede Magnus Norman 6-4, 6-2.

Aime's chance to test

CLAIREFONTAIN E. France, Oct 10 (Reuter): While most of Europe's soccer elite will be engaged in the last round of World Cup qualifiers on Saturday, France, hosts of next year's finals, will have a gentle run-out against South Africa.

France when the hosts managed only three goals in three games against Brazil, Italy and France.

Jacquet has called on youthful Thierry Henry who had several impressive outings with Monaco, particularly when he scored twice against Germany's Bayer Leverkusen in the Champions League.

Also in the frame is Auxerre's experienced front man Stephane Guirvacq who has seven goals in 11 league games so far this season.

The coach has made it clear that the door is still open — but not for too much longer. "In the coming months I intend to try some experiments and to call on new players," he said. "But I don't want the situation to drag on too long."

Jacquet said he already has in mind 15 players' names for his squad but the remaining seven places are still up for grabs.

He is treating the match against South Africa, the African continental champions and newly qualified for the World Cup for the first time ever, as a gentle outing.

"It's only a match to see how we are feeling physically and mentally," he said. "The serious matters are expected to start in January."

A total of 16 teams took part in the month-long tournament organised by the Gazipur Khelawars Association.

State Minister for Youth and Sports Obaidul Quader distributed prizes.

Zagreb fined

GENEVA, Oct 10: Croatia Zagreb, whose fans went on the rampage in Zurich after winning their UEFA Cup game last month, have been fined 100,000 Swiss francs (67,000 dollars), reports AFP.
