Prabarana Purnima programme in Chittagong

CHITTAGONG, Oct 14: The Buddhists will celebrate one of their major festivals Prabarana Purnima here and elsewhere in the district tomorrow with traditional enthusiasm and due religious fervour, reports BSS.

The Buddhists in Bangladesh celebrate the Purnima in commemoration of ending of three months long seclusion of the Buddhist monks inside the 'monasteries' and beginning of one month long yellow robe giving ceremony from the day after tomorrow in different parts of the country.

The purnima will be celebrated in all Buddhists monasteries through day-long programmes which included hoisting of the national and religious flags atop all Buddhist monasteries, chanting of the sacred verses from The Tripitaka.

Feeding to the Buddhist monks, shilghrahan, mass prayer, blood donation and discussion meetings are also highlighted in the programmes.

The main attraction of the day's programmes is releasing lighted balloons in the sky in the evening simultaneously from all monasteries.

In the city, main congregations will be held at Nandankanan Buddhist Temple, Navapandit Vihar at Katalganj, International Purnachar Boudhia Vihar at Dev Pahar, Sarbojonin Buddha Vihar at Momin Road, Agrabad Biswa Moitri Buddha Vihar.

Special prayers will also be held at Buddhist monasteries seeking continuous peace and progress of the nation as well as global peace.

The purnima will also be celebrated in a befitting manner in the Buddhist populated regions of Chittagong Hill Tracts, Cox's Bazar, Noakhali, Comilla and Patuakhali.

A gang of four snatchers riding on an auto-rickshaw intercepted the rickshaw in which Polash Koli Hossain, a resident of Lalmatia, who was travelling through Road No 27 at about 10:40 am.

The muggers snatched away a gold chain, rings and bangles, worth about Tk 32,520 at gun point from her. Patrol police with the help of local people held two of the snatchers as Koli started screaming. However, two others managed to escape with the auto-rickshaw.

Police arrested the two and recovered most of the snatched ornaments worth about Tk 19,520 from them.

A week-long 'jubo mela' will begin at the city's Dharmaraj Club ground on November 2, reports UNB.

The Youth Development Directorate has organised the mela to exhibit and promote the sale of products produced by unemployed youths under self-employment schemes in order to inspire them to take up similar schemes to attain self-reliance.

The directorate under the Youth and Sports Ministry every year observes National Youth Day on November 1 in the country, said a press release.
