Trial of Gagan's killers demanded

Jatiya Samanvay Committee yesterday demanded trial of the killers of its member M Hossain Gagan, who was allegedly killed by some Pakistanis in Belgium recently, reports UNB.

The demand came when the committee convenor Syed Hasan Imam and its member secretary Prof A Mannan Chowdhury called on State Minister for Foreign Affairs Abul Hasan Chowdhury at his office.

The committee leaders termed the killing of Gagan as 'political murder' and told the state minister that such heinous activities seemed to be designed to drive out Bangladeshi nationals living abroad.

They urged the state minister to take up the matter with the Pakistani authorities and demanded exemplary punishment of the assailants.

Abul Hasan assured them of taking all possible measures to identify the killers with the help of the Belgium government.

Meanwhile, the State Minister yesterday summoned the Belgium Charge d'Affairs to his office and discussed the matter in details.

Among others, Advocate Nazma Kausar, Sheikh Abul Kader, Nazrul Islam Romel and ATM Khaleel Hossain, elder brother of the deceased, were present during the meeting, according to a press release.

Pachabdi Gazi, 73, the legendary tiger hunter of the Sundarbans, died at his village home of Sora under Satkhira district on Oct 12, reports BSS.

Pachabdi Gazi, whose real name was Abdul Hamid, retired as a forest guard of the Sundarbans last year and since then he had been living a solitary life at his village home.

Son of Meher Gazi, another great tiger hunter, Pachabdi began hunting the ferocious tigers of the Sundarbans at the age of 15 initially as a companion of his grandfather, Ismail Gazi, also a reputed hunter. Pachabdi killed 57 man-eaters during his long career.

Pachabdi last killed a man-eater on January 20, 1987 with a double barrel gun. The tiger had killed 26 bawalis of the Sundarbans area and caused great panic in the Talpatti area.

He has left behind his wife, four sons and four daughters.
