SAARC debate organisers leave for KL today

Two former presidents of two debating clubs will leave here today for Kuala Lumpur to work out a plan for holding the SAARC debate competition in Bangladesh next year, reports UNB.

They are Hassan Ahmed Chowdhury Kiron, former president of Dhaka University Debating Society, and Iqbal Ali Khan, former president of North South University Debating Club.

Bangladesh is expected to organise the SAARC debate competition for the second time. The first such a debate competition was held in Dhaka in 1990.

The delegation will also attend Bestari International English Debating Tournament (BIED) II 1997 began in Kuala Lumpur on Sunday. It will be concluded on October 19.

A 4-member debating team of Dhaka University is now in Kuala Lumpur to take part in the tourney.

Milad Mahfil

The second death anniversary of Alhaj Zahurul Islam, Chairman, Islam Group of Industries, will be observed on Sunday, says a press release.

To mark the occasion, a milad mahfil will be held at Bhagalpur, village home of late Islam.

All his friends and relatives have been requested to attend the milad mahfil.

'Plan to introduce new performance law a conspiracy'

Bangladesh Group Theatre Federation has expressed concern at the reported move to introduce a new Performance Control Act, reports UNB.

Federation Chairman Nasiruddin Yusuf in a statement yesterday said the attempt to introduce new performance law is nothing but a conspiracy by a certain quarter as the Cabinet abolished the previous Act a few days back.

He said the drama artists of the country are naturally worried with the news carried by a section of press and threatened to resist such a move, according to a press release.

JS Chief Whip back home

Chief Whip of the Jatiya Sangsad Abul Hasanat Abdullah returned home yesterday after attending the 52nd session of the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) in New York, reports BSS.

Abdullah, who left here on September 27, was a member of the Bangladesh delegation to the current session of UNGA.

The Chief Whip made a statement on October 13 at the second committee on the UNGA on the general debate of world economic situation.

The Chief Whip earlier attended the plenary session of UNGA on October 6 and had a meeting with Ms Shazia Rafiq, Secretary General of Parliamentarians of Global Action (PGA).

He also attended the annual coordination meeting of OIC, SAARC Foreign Ministers' meeting and 7th annual ministerial level meeting of LDCs as member of Bangladesh delegation, a press release said.

DB recovers firearm, 2 held in city

The Detective Branch (DB) of police recovered a firearm and arrested two persons in this connection from Sutrapur area in the city Wednesday.

Police said the arrested two were identified as Mohamadullah alias Dipu and Jewel.

During a raid, a DB team arrested them with one revolver and ten rounds of live bullets from the ground floor of a building on Patla Khan Lane at about 8:30 pm.

A case was filed with Shu-trapur thana in this regard.

BCAS seminar on biotech & cloning held

A seminar on Biotechnology and Cloning: Problems and Prospects in Bangladesh was held yesterday under the auspices of the Bangladesh Centre for Advanced Studies (BCAS), says a press release.

Chaired by Dr Atiq Rahman, Director of BCAS and conducted by AKM Morshed, BCAS Seminar Coordinator, the seminar has been participated by a number of development researchers and activists including all BCAS directors and fellows.

Shah Alam Mollah, Director of the College of Technology, Dhanmondi, presented the keynote paper on the subject. While addressing as the keynote speaker, Mollah said that, although, bio-technology is not so simple as we may sometimes assume and it is a product of very high development of a number of sciences which include physics, chemistry, biochemical engineering, instrumentation technology, computer technology and mathematics, a poor country such as ours can be rich and benefit immensely by taking it seriously and cultivate what is cultivable.
